Ingram Micro Recognized as a Cisco Authorized Learning Partner

IRVINE, CA -- (Marketwired) -- 11/21/16 -- Ingram Micro Inc. (NYSE: IM) announced today it has achieved Authorized Learning Partner status from Cisco. The new designation recognizes Ingram Micro's fulfillment of the program requirements to deliver Cisco® Authorized Training as part of the Global Learning Partner Organization, which includes meeting the minimum curriculum, course delivery, lab and staffing requirements, including the use of Certified Cisco Systems Instructors (CCSI).

"Training, education and certification remain paramount to a channel partner's success," said Greg Richey, director, Training and Professional Services, Ingram Micro. "As a Cisco Authorized Learning Partner we are simplifying engagement and making it easier for channel partners to grow their Cisco business by learning more and achieving the certifications needed to advance their engineers' skill set. Our training and professional services portfolio goes deep and wide, representing the advanced solutions, skills and certifications needed to meet the dynamic needs of today's small to midsize businesses and enterprises."

The Cisco Learning Partner program focuses on core technology training and preparing IT professionals for career certification by delivering industry leading Cisco Authorized curriculum.
