ExxonMobil to Launch 2015 Outlook for Energy

Webcast scheduled Tuesday, December 9, 2014 at 1:00 p.m. EST

IRVING, Texas--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Media are invited to participate in a webcast to launch ExxonMobil's 2015 Outlook for Energy: A View to 2040 on Tuesday, December 9, 2014 from 12 p.m. to 1 p.m. CST (1 p.m. to 2 p.m. EST).

ExxonMobil executives Bill Colton, vice president of corporate strategic planning, and Ken Cohen, vice president of public and government affairs, will lead the presentation. Sarah Ladislaw, co-director and senior fellow in the Energy and National Security Program at the Center for Strategic & International Studies, will moderate the program. The presentation will be followed by time for questions and discussion.

The webcast will be available at www.exxonmobil.com/energyoutlookwebcast.

The Outlook for Energy, updated each year, is ExxonMobil's long-term global view of energy demand and supply. Its findings help guide the long-term investments that underpin ExxonMobil's business strategy.

ExxonMobil, the largest publicly traded international oil and gas company, uses technology and innovation to help meet the world's growing energy needs. ExxonMobil holds an industry-leading inventory of resources, is the largest refiner and marketer of petroleum products, and its chemical company is one of the largest in the world.
