Sidus Space Announces International Expansion and Plans to Open a Netherlands Office

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Sidus Space, Inc. (NASDAQ:SIDU), a Space-as-a-Service company focused on mission critical hardware manufacturing combined with commercial satellite design, manufacture, launch, and data collection today announced plans to increase its presence in Europe by opening a new office in the Netherlands.

“Sidus Space recognizes the importance of global participation in the rapidly accelerating space economy,” says Carol Craig, Sidus Space Founder and CEO. “Establishing a presence in the Netherlands is an important strategic step in our international growth plan.”

Sidus plans to expand its reach in the European market to engage the rapidly growing space ecosystem and promote space-based data adoption by democratizing access to space. As part of its international expansion, Sidus Space previously announced agreements with Dawn Aerospace, GTM and Dhruva Space and continues to explore opportunities with other international customers in the government and commercial sectors. In addition, CEO Carol Craig and members of the Sidus Space team participated in multiple international Space industry conferences over the last several months and provided capabilities presentations to several international delegations including Turkey, France, Spain and Japan.

Sidus’ 35,000 square foot Satellite Production Facility is located in the heart of the Space Coast near NASA’s Kennedy Space Center. Sidus Space is Bringing Space Down to Earth™ by focusing on designing customized, cost effective, timely solutions to customers that would otherwise lack the opportunity to achieve their space aspirations.
