

Gladstone Land Increases its Monthly Cash Distributions and Announces Third Quarter Earnings Release and Conference Call Dates

MCLEAN, Va., Oct. 11, 2016 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Gladstone Land Corporation (NASDAQ:LAND) (the "Company") announced a 3.0% increase in its monthly cash distribution on its common stock, beginning with the months of October, November and December 2016, its second such increase during 2016. The Company also declared monthly cash distributions on its 6.375% Series A Cumulative Term Preferred Stock (the "Series A Preferred Stock") for each of October, November and December 2016 and announced its plan to report earnings for the third quarter ended September 30, 2016.

"Our goal is to increase cash distributions to keep up with, or stay ahead of, inflation," said David Gladstone, President and CEO of the Company. "Given that inflation generally decreases the buying power of the dollar, we believe in increasing our distributions to maintain or increase the purchasing power derived from our cash distributions. While there can be no guarantee that we will be able to achieve this goal every year, this is our plan. We further believe that the farms we own will increase in value at a rate that outpaces that of inflation, and we believe our stockholders will be able to see this through a gradual increase in our net asset value, which we publish each quarter."
