Herbalife Participates in National Black Caucus of State Legislators Corporate Roundtable at Annual Legislative Conference

Company Emphasizes Efforts to Provide Balanced Nutrition Options in Underserved Communities

LOS ANGELES--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Today, global nutrition company Herbalife Ltd. (NYSE: HLF) participated in the National Black Caucus of State Legislators' (NBCSL) Corporate Roundtable at the group's 38th Annual Legislative Conference in Dallas, Texas.

"Herbalife is proud to support the NBCSL and shares its commitment to helping people across the nation," said Angela Arboleda, Herbalife's Vice President of Government and Community Affairs. "We are pleased to meet with state legislators to discuss the various ways Herbalife can support the positive impact they are making in their regions. Together, we can help all Americans enjoy a healthier, more active lifestyle and a more nutritious diet."

The Corporate Roundtable is an executive committee meeting that provides opportunities for members like Herbalife to collaborate with policymakers and organizations looking to make positive change for underserved and African American communities.
