C-Bond Systems Announces Formation of Medical Advisory Board

Newly Formed Medical Advisory Board to Provide Guidance on Use of C-Bond Nano-Products in the Fight Against COVID-19 and Other Pathogens

HOUSTON, April 13, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- C-Bond Systems, Inc. (the “Company” or “C-Bond”) (OTC: CBNT), a nanotechnology solutions company, today announced the formation of a Medical Advisory Board to advance the breadth and use of products offered by C-Bond Safety Solutions Group, primarily its C-Bond FN Nano® Coating, which is used in hospitals and other facilities to reduce the spread of pathogens including COVID-19.

The founding members of the Medical Advisory Board include Sergio Moreira, Jr., M.D., and Anil Vaidya, M.D., both recognized global experts in their respective fields.

Dr. Moreira is a Diplomate of the American Board of Urology and a member of the Brazilian Medical Association and Brazilian Urologic Society. He is also a Lieutenant Colonel in the U.S. Army Reserves. He has received numerous awards and scholarships throughout his career and is a member of several professional societies including Special Operations Medical Association and the American Urological Association, among others. Dr. Moreira is extensively published and a frequent guest lecturer.

Dr. Vaidya is a multi-organ transplant surgeon with a diversified clinical, translational and academic portfolio. After completion of his surgical/urological residency, Dr. Vaidya went on to undertake an American Society of Transplant Surgeons (ASTS) accredited fellowship in multi-organ transplantation at the University of Miami. He is a Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons, England-Transplant Surgery, and the Co-director of the Intestinal Transplant Service at The Cleveland Clinic, Ohio. Dr. Vaidya has authored more than 120 articles in peer-reviewed journals and his rating by Research Gate puts him among the top 3% of the surgeons in the world.

“We are proud to welcome trusted experts Dr. Moreira and Dr. Vaidya to our newly formed Medical Advisory Board, helping to spread awareness and use of the FN-NANO protective coating, and to rely on their expertise and advice as we look to potentially further broaden our pipeline of nano-products into the healthcare industry,” said Scott R. Silverman, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of C-Bond. “Their collective experience, relationships and networks are second to none – we strongly believe they will be invaluable assets to C-Bond as we grow the use of these important safety solutions in hospitals and other facilities.”
