Gilles Gagnon Joins Ceapro Board

EDMONTON, ALBERTA -- (MARKET WIRE) -- 09/11/07 -- Ceapro Inc. (TSX VENTURE: CZO) a Canadian growth-stage biotechnology company is delighted to announce that Gilles Gagnon, with 25 years experience in healthcare and pharmaceutical organizations, most recently as President and CEO of AEterna Zentaris, has joined the Board, effective immediately. His extensive managerial experience, especially in mergers and acquisitions, as well as his inside knowledge of the pharma world will aid Ceapro in executing its growth strategy - to be a global leader in developing and commercializing products for human and animal health markets.

"Ceapro is a promising company with a compelling story of innovation in health-based technologies based on solid science," said Gilles Gagnon. "They are moving from pure research in natural ingredients, through product development to international commercialization."

Added Ceapro Chairman Ed Taylor, "With Gilles's hands-on experience, we will develop our vision into viable business practices, focusing on bringing Ceapro to the next level of success and business maturity - as a global biotechnology company."

This Board position is being filled as John Yewchuk, President and CEO of Thermo King Western Ltd, who has been on Ceapro's board since 1999, is stepping down. His important contribution over the years is well appreciated.

About Gilles Gagnon

Prior to forming his pharmaceutical consultancy firm, Prodev Pharma Inc., Gilles Gagnon held several senior executive positions: President and COO, then CEO at AEterna Zentaris; VP External Affairs at Novartis Pharmaceuticals; Executive Director, Corporate Planning and Administration at Sandoz Canada, Inc., to name a few. Throughout his career, in addition to general management functions, he has been particularly involved in corporate development, alliance management, as well as marketing functions. In this capacity he participated in the launch of nine innovative pharmaceutical products. He has also participated in several international committees and strategic advisory boards, holds post-graduate degrees in pharmacology (M.Sc.) and administration (M.B.A) from the Université 1/2 de Sherbrooke, as well as a certificate in General Management from the London Business School, UK.
