Joseph A. Alagna, Joseph Gunnar & Co. founder and CEO commented: "As we begin our third decade of providing value - add, personalized financial services to individual and institutional investors and to exciting companies, we continue to enhance and expand the firm's offerings in order to maintain our cutting edge for clients and our lead position amongst boutique securities firms. Therefore, I am especially pleased that the launch of our updated website coincides with the additions this past year of our Equity Capital and Debt Capital Markets Investment Banking Groups and Institutional Sales team, as well as the deepening of our Fixed Income and Research capabilities."

Hopefully, you'll find the site easy to use, clean, and informative.
