Hercules Capital Receives Reaffirmed Baa3 Investment Grade Rating with Revised Outlook to Positive from Moody's Investors Service

SAN MATEO, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Hercules Capital, Inc. (NYSE: HTGC) ("Hercules" or the "Company"), the largest and leading specialty financing provider to innovative venture, growth and established stage companies backed by some of the leading and top-tier venture capital and select private equity firms, today announced that Moody's Investors Service, Inc. ("Moody's") has reaffirmed Hercules an investment grade credit and corporate rating of Baa3 with a revised outlook to positive, as well as its underlying analysis.

"We are very pleased that Moody's has reaffirmed our Baa3 investment grade credit rating and revised our outlook to positive from stable," stated Seth Meyer, chief financial officer of Hercules. "This rating and the change in outlook reflect our strong long-term operating history and internally managed structure, our differentiated and diversified venture and growth stage lending model and commitment to disciplined underwriting, as well as the scale of our institutionalized lending platform."

The affirmed Baa3 rating reflects the Company's sector-leading profitability, its 21-year operating history as a business development company, and its solid capitalization and funding. The revision to positive from stable reflects the expectation that the Company's performance will be resilient despite elevated risks in the Company's sector, supported by its orientation toward senior secured investments, sound underwriting and effective asset allocation. The positive outlook incorporates the expectation that Hercules will continue to generate profitability that is superior to peers, manage leverage below its ceiling of 1.25x debt-to-equity with a solid cushion to its 150% asset coverage ratio minimum, and improve its funding and liquidity profile.
