Andersen Welcomes Roger Pillow to US National Tax Practice

SAN FRANCISCO--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Andersen announces the addition of Managing Director Roger Pillow to the US National Tax (USNT) practice in the Washington, D.C. office. Roger has more than 40 years of experience in both government and private practice with deep expertise in the real estate, private equity, life sciences and entertainment industries.

"Roger is another great addition to our growing transactions practice," said Ellen MacNeil, Managing Director of US National Tax for Andersen. "His experience working with clients in various industries and in all areas of partnership and joint venture, along with his significant transactional knowledge involving publicly traded partnerships, UPREITs, UP-Cs, and cross-border planning make him an excellent addition for our team and an outstanding resource for our clients."

Prior to joining Andersen, Roger was Senior Counsel in the Office of Tax Policy for the United States Department of Treasury where he was responsible for tax policy matters regarding pass-through entities. He also served as Special Counsel to the Associate Chief Counsel, (Passthroughs and Special Industries), for the Internal Revenue Service. Roger was also a Principal at EY for 17 years and a partner at Arthur Andersen.

"The addition of Roger to the firm further enhances our commitment to providing best-in-class service to our clients. Roger's background in working with the United States Department of Treasury and the Internal Revenue Service will be invaluable to our USNT practice," stated Dan DePaoli, U.S. Country Managing Director.

Roger received his Bachelor of Science in Accountancy from Arkansas State University, his Juris Doctor from University of Arkansas School of Law, and his Master of Laws in Taxation (LL.M.) with distinction from Georgetown University Law Center.
