Know Labs Announces Webcast with BioPub

SEATTLE--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Know Labs, Inc. (OTCQB: KNWN), an emerging leader in non-invasive medical diagnostics, announced the publication of a webcast hosted by BioPub, a biotech investment and discussion website found at www.biopub.co. The webcast can be found at this link.

The webcast was moderated by BioPub's founder and editor in chief, Dr. KSS, MD, Ph.D. Participants from Know Labs included CEO Phil Bosua and Chairman Ron Erickson.

During the webcast, Phil and Ron answered questions regarding the miniaturization of the hardware for the UBAND™, shared a snapshot of a test result representative of recent weeks of testing, and discussed the Company's goals for the remainder of 2020.

About Know Labs, Inc.

Know Labs, Inc. is a public company whose shares trade under the stock symbol "KNWN." The Company's technology uses spectroscopy to direct electromagnetic energy through a substance or material to capture a unique molecular signature. The Company refers to its technology as Bio-RFID™. The Bio-RFID technology can be integrated into a variety of wearable, mobile or bench-top form factors. This patented and patent pending technology makes it possible to effectively conduct analyses that could only previously be performed by invasive and/or expensive and time-consuming lab-based tests. The Company's first product will be the non-invasive UBAND Continuous Glucose Monitor (CGM). Those wishing to stay up to date on the developments at Know Labs can subscribe to the Company's YouTube channel at this link.
