Note: The Company announced a 50% stock dividend to shareholders of record on June 30, 2007, payable on July 15, 2007. All earnings per share and weighted average share information reflect the 50% stock dividend.

"We were extremely pleased with the revenue and earnings growth this quarter," said Allen Carlson, Sun's President and CEO. "Gross profit margins remained strong at this level of sales and the incremental sales allowed additional profit to flow to the bottom line, with earnings up 38% over the previous year.

"Growth continued across all business segments in the second quarter," Carlson continued. "European and Asian sales were especially strong, making up 78% of the increase over last year. Our success in reaching into new markets around the world continues to be a significant contributor to our growth.

"Last week we announced that we will open a sales office in Bangalore, India, to help Sun develop new business opportunities in the Indian market. We are excited about our opportunities in India and other expanding markets around the globe," concluded Carlson. "We believe this is a great time in the business cycle to be making strategic investments that will yield future benefits for Sun."

Outlook

2007 third quarter sales are estimated to be approximately $40 million and earnings per share are estimated to be in the range of $0.30 to $0.32. This would represent an increase of approximately 10% in sales and 29% in earnings per share over last year.

FORWARD-LOOKING INFORMATION

Certain oral statements made by management from time to time and certain statements contained herein that are not historical facts are "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and, because such statements involve risks and uncertainties, actual results may differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements, including those in Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations are statements regarding the intent, belief or current expectations, estimates or projections of the Company, its Directors or its Officers about the Company and the industry in which it operates, and assumptions made by management, and include among other items, (i) the Company's strategies regarding growth, including its intention to develop new products; (ii) the Company's financing plans; (iii) trends affecting the Company's financial condition or results of operations; (iv) the Company's ability to continue to control costs and to meet its liquidity and other financing needs; (v) the declaration and payment of dividends; and (vi) the Company's ability to respond to changes in customer demand domestically and internationally, including as a result of standardization. Although the Company believes that its expectations are based on reasonable assumptions, it can give no assurance that the anticipated results will occur.

Important factors that could cause the actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements include, among other items, (i) the economic cyclicality of the capital goods industry in general and the hydraulic valve and manifold industry in particular, which directly affect customer orders, lead times and sales volume; (ii) conditions in the capital markets, including the interest rate environment and the availability of capital; (iii) changes in the competitive marketplace that could affect the Company's revenue and/or cost bases, such as increased competition, lack of qualified engineering, marketing, management or other personnel, and increased labor and raw materials costs; (iv) changes in technology or customer requirements, such as standardization of the cavity into which screw-in cartridge valves must fit, which could render the Company's products or technologies noncompetitive or obsolete; (v) new product introductions, product sales mix and the geographic mix of sales nationally and internationally; and (vi) changes relating to the Company's international sales, including changes in regulatory requirements or tariffs, trade or currency restrictions, fluctuations in exchange rates, and tax and collection issues. Further information relating to factors that could cause actual results to differ from those anticipated is included but not limited to information under the headings Item 1. "Business," Item 1A. "Risk Factors" and Item 7. "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Conditions and Results of Operations" in the Company's Form 10-K for the year ended December 30, 2006, and "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Conditions and Results of Operations" in the Company's Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2007. The Company disclaims any intention or obligation to update or revise forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
