Alaska Airlines selects Anuvu as New Content Service Provider

The new partnership brings Anuvu's content curation expertise to Alaska Airlines for the first time

LOS ANGELES, JUNE 5, 2024 - Anuvu, a leading provider of worldwide entertainment solutions for mobility markets and high-speed inflight connectivity, is today announcing its new partnership with Alaska Airlines to provide full inflight entertainment and content services to the airline's guests. Anuvu will provide Alaska Airlines with a custom curated line-up of movies and TV shows and assist in brokering industry-leading licensing partnerships. Leveraging Anuvu's market leading cloud-based, fully automated supply chain, Open, Alaska Airlines will be able to usher in a new era of digitized content delivery. This guarantees faster access to fresh and diverse content catering to their guests' broad spectrum of tastes and preferences.

"We are incredibly proud to service Alaska Airlines. This partnership signifies our commitment to providing industry leading video, and boarding music programming, and acknowledges the need for quick and effortless digital delivery" says Estibaliz Asiain, EVP Media & Content at Anuvu.

“Alaska Airlines needed a trusted partner capable of delivering a seamless and risk-free guest experience and our capabilities in delivering high-quality content sets us apart from other CSPs in the industry. We are thrilled to bring world-class entertainment to Alaska Airlines passengers and look forward to supporting the airline as it continues to elevate its content offering.”
