

Gladstone Land Announces Minimal Damage From Hurricane Irma to Its Florida Farms

MCLEAN, Va., Sept. 13, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Gladstone Land Corporation (NASDAQ:LAND) ("Gladstone Land" or the "Company") announces minimal damage to its farms and farm facilities in Florida in the wake of Hurricane Irma.

"We have spoken to our tenant-partners across the state who reported that crop losses and property damage have been minimal. We are grateful to have come out relatively unscathed, given the strength of this historic storm," said Bill Frisbie, Managing Director of Gladstone Land.

"Our tenant-partners know that we stand behind our farms 100%, so we will continue to closely monitor the situation and step in to help where needed. We are fortunate to have a focus on annual crops on our Florida farms, which allows farmers to recover quickly when natural disasters strike," said David Gladstone, President and CEO of Gladstone Land.

About Gladstone Land Corporation:

Gladstone Land is a publicly-traded real estate investment trust that invests in farmland located in major agricultural markets in the U.S., which it leases to farmers, and pays monthly distributions to its stockholders. The Company reports the current fair value of its farmland on a quarterly basis; as of June 30, 2017, its estimated net asset value was $14.46 per share. Gladstone Land currently owns 72 farms, comprised of 61,794 acres in 9 different states across the U.S., valued at approximately $531 million. Its acreage is predominantly concentrated in locations where its tenants are able to grow fresh produce annual row crops, such as berries and vegetables, which are planted and harvested annually or more frequently; as well as permanent crops, such as almonds, blueberries, and pistachios, which are planted every 10 to 20-plus years. The Company also may acquire property related to farming, such as cooling facilities, processing buildings, packaging facilities, and distribution centers. Gladstone Land has paid 55 consecutive monthly cash distributions on its common stock since its initial public offering in January 2013, and the current per-share distribution on its common stock is $0.044 per month, or $0.528 per year.
