

Gladstone Land Acquires Additional Farmland in Florida

MCLEAN, VA / ACCESSWIRE / December 20, 2021 /Gladstone Land Corporation (NASDAQ:LAND) ("Gladstone Land") announced that it has acquired 1,204 gross acres of farmland, including 975 farmable acres, located north of Fort Myers, Florida, for approximately $7.4 million. In connection with the acquisition, Gladstone Land entered into a five-year, triple-net lease agreement with the seller and current tenant. The property is farmed primarily for sod, melons, and cattle.

"We are very pleased to add this versatile property to our portfolio," said Bill Frisbie, Executive Vice President of Gladstone Land. "Demand for farmable acreage in Florida continues to increase, and we are excited to partner with a very strong tenant who will manage the property well."

"The acquisition of this farm adds to our existing properties in the Southeast and is another good, long-term investment for us," said David Gladstone, President and CEO of Gladstone Land. "We have had a strong year in 2021 with acquisitions and look forward to another good year in 2022."

About Gladstone Land Corporation:

Founded in 1997, Gladstone Land is a publicly traded real estate investment trust that acquires and owns farmland and farm-related properties located in major agricultural markets in the U.S. and leases its properties to unrelated third-party farmers. The company, which reports the aggregate fair value of its farmland holdings on a quarterly basis, currently owns 164 farms, comprised of approximately 113,000 acres in 15 different states and 45,000 acre-feet of banked water in California, valued at approximately $1.5 billion. Gladstone Land's farms are predominantly located in regions where its tenants are able to grow fresh produce annual row crops, such as berries and vegetables, which are generally planted and harvested annually. The company also owns farms growing permanent crops, such as almonds, apples, cherries, figs, lemons, olives, pistachios, and other orchards, as well as blueberry groves and vineyards, which are generally planted every 10 to 20-plus years and harvested annually. The company may also acquire property related to farming, such as cooling facilities, processing buildings, packaging facilities, and distribution centers. Gladstone Land pays monthly distributions to its stockholders and has paid 106 consecutive monthly cash distributions on its common stock since its initial public offering in January 2013. The company has increased its common distributions 24 times over the prior 27 quarters, and the current per-share distribution on its common stock is $0.0452 per month, or $0.5424 per year.
