Born and raised in Southern California, Scott graduated from

UC Riverside, earning a bachelor's degree in history/law and society. Scott's career has included roles in politics, government, media relations, as well as the corporate marketplace. He received his Master of Divinity degree from Bethel Theological Seminary in San Diego. A pastor for 25 years, Scott served as Senior Pastor of the First Baptist Church of San Diego for the past 18 years.

99.5 KKLA Director of Programming, Rodney Miller commented, "Today's announcement comes on the heels of an eight-month nationwide search which included fill-in SoCal LIVE guest hosts Bob Lepine, Pastor Dudley Rutherford, and New Life Live's Steve Arterburn. We are grateful and appreciative to everyone who stepped in and gave so much of their time and talent during this search."

Miller added, "I was extremely impressed with Scott Furrow's decision two years ago to not only serve as Senior Pastor, but also host a daily radio program on sister station KPRZ in San Diego. Scott left his sermon notes at the Church and instead brought in the top news stories discussing them from a spiritual and values perspective. On 'SoCal Live', Scott will have two hours each weekday to bring hope and encourage our listeners to be salt and light in today's rapidly changing culture."

According to Salem Los Angeles Vice President/General Manager Terry Fahy, "Scott combines a quick wit, theological knowledge and wisdom, a strong grasp of the news, and empathy for issues facing our listeners. It's a winning combination for talk radio in Southern California."

Scott Furrow commented, "As a pastor, my passion and my calling has been encouraging people to grow in their faith and to be more Kingdom-minded in everyday life. Hosting the 'SoCal LIVE' weekday program on 99.5 FM KKLA will enable me to do that on a much larger scale. I can hardly wait!"

Scott Furrow will also be heard on FM 106.1/AM 1210 KPRZ weekday afternoons 3-5pm.
