"I made deeply personal decisions on behalf of my mother and I know how confusing this journey can be. Now, the passion that drives me every day is to empower families and seniors who are navigating similar circumstances," says Newman. "We are truly grateful for Answers for Elders' partnership with the Senior Resource Podcast Network and Salem Media. It's a relationship that we hope will serve as a powerful catalyst in bringing inspiration, education, and applicable solutions to millions of families."

ABOUT SUZANNE NEWMAN:

Following a career of over 25 years in sales, media, and marketing management, Suzanne Newman found herself on a 6-year-journey caring for her mother. Her trials and tribulations as a family caregiver inspired an impassioned life mission outside of the corporate world to revolutionize the journey that so many other American families also find themselves on. In 2009, she became the founder and CEO of Answers for Elders, Inc., subsequently hosting hundreds of radio segments and podcasts, as well as authoring her first book. Suzanne and Answers for Elders, Inc. are committed to helping families and seniors along their caregiving journeys by providing education, resources, and support; because no one should have to navigate the complicated world of Eldercare alone and unsupported.
