Save the Date for 2013 Skillsoft Perspectives Global

Skillsoft announces event information for its annual user conference where industry leaders share learning best practices

NASHUA, N.H.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Skillsoft today announced event information for its 2013 Skillsoft Perspectives Global user conference. Skillsoft, a pioneer in the field of learning with a long history of innovation, hosts the yearly event for its customers as an interactive forum to discuss innovations in the learning industry. Skillsoft provides cloud-based learning solutions for its customers worldwide, ranging from global enterprises, government, and education to mid-sized and small businesses, and its annual user conference provides learning professionals a unique opportunity to share and discuss how learning delivers business value for their organizations. The 2013 Skillsoft Perspectives Global conference will take place May 13 – 16, 2013 at the Rosen Shingle Creek in Orlando, Florida.

“With more than 1,000 attendees, representing nearly 450 organizations, the 2012 Skillsoft Perspectives user conference was our most successful conference ever, and we expect the 2013 event to be even bigger,” said John Ambrose, Senior Vice President, Strategy, Corporate Development and Emerging Business, Skillsoft. “Our customers value Perspectives as an exclusive opportunity to network, interact and learn from other learning professionals and industry leaders on how to create and maintain successful learning programs. We encourage all of our customers to attend the 2013 conference and look forward to working with them to develop innovative learning programs that drive value to their businesses.”

Call for presenters is now open – information should be submitted online. The deadline for submission is November 16, 2012.

Attendees at the 2013 event will have access to keynote speeches, numerous Learning Sessions and workshops on a wide variety of topics. Also during Perspectives, the 2013 Innovations in Learning Awards winners will be announced. Nominations for the awards, which honor Skillsoft customers for their significant achievements in e-learning, recognizing innovative ideas and inspiring leaders who are helping to transform the learning landscape, will open later this year.
