Washington REIT Completes Lease Up At 1775 Eye Street, Now 98% Leased

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- Washington REIT (Washington Real Estate Investment Trust – NYSE: WRE), has executed new leases totaling approximately 79,000 square feet at 1775 Eye Street in Washington, DC, bringing the building to a 98% leased status. Acquired by Washington REIT on May 1, 2014 at 62% leased, 1775 Eye Street underwent an extensive renovation and modernization of its entryway, lobby and common areas.

"We saw the opportunity to create value for our shareholders through the effective repositioning of this property," said Thomas Q. Bakke, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of Washington REIT. "Today the building is almost fully leased to a variety of prestigious tenants. We have had multiple prospects bidding for the same space on the top floor and the building's value has now substantially increased since we acquired it last year."

Washington REIT relocated its own headquarters to the 10th floor of the building into a modern space designed to help the company forge a culture of collaboration and execution. The Company regards its move downtown to be a seminal step in its transformation to an urban-infill REIT.

"Our dynamic downtown headquarters location places us at the epicenter of the industry's leadership in our region. Furthermore, it better serves both our tenants and our properties, and aligns with our strategy to own high-quality, well-located urban and transit-linked assets," noted Mr. Bakke.

1775 Eye Street is an eleven-story office building with a three-level parking garage, located at the intersection of 18th and Eye Street, in northwest DC. Located in the heart of the Central Business District, the building is directly across the street from Farragut West (Blue and Orange Lines) and two blocks from Farragut North (Red Line) Metro stations.
