“We seek to maximize our ability to create value for our shareholders by recycling capital-intensive legacy assets with single-tenant exposure into Arlington Tower, a recently upgraded, high-quality asset with a diversified tenant base and dramatic river and monument views,” said Paul T. McDermott, President and Chief Executive Officer of Washington REIT. “As we drive strong pre-leasing activity at Watergate 600, Arlington Tower enables Washington REIT to offer tenants another option with spectacular views at a meaningfully different price point, and to create a compelling value proposition for small and mid-size tenants in a resurging Rosslyn, where we have successfully repositioned and leased 1600 Wilson.”

Please refer to “The Opportunity to Grow and De-Risk, 2018 Asset Recycling” presentation, dated January 24, 2018, in the Investor section of the Company’s website for more information on this acquisition and disposition and the Company’s asset-recycling strategy.

Arlington Tower is approximately 95% leased to prestigious tenants including, Raytheon/BBN Technologies, Promontory Interfinancial Network, Graham Holdings, Pepco, B. Riley FBR and the National Electrical Manufacturers Association. Washington REIT plans to create value by leasing up approximately 70,000 square feet of known tenant move-outs in 2019.

Located at 1300 North 17th Street, two blocks from the Rosslyn Metro station, Arlington Tower has a Walk Score® of 95 and offers immediate commuter access to Interstate 66, Route 50 and the George Washington Parkway. Built in 1980 and extensively renovated in the past five years with capital improvements of approximately $17.5 million, this 19-story office building sits near the Potomac River with panoramic river and monument views.

Washington REIT is a self-administered, equity real estate investment trust investing in income-producing properties in the greater Washington metro region. Washington REIT owns a diversified portfolio of 49 properties, totaling approximately 6.4 million square feet of commercial space and 4,268 multifamily units, and land held for development. These 49 properties consist of 20 office properties, 16 retail centers and 13 multifamily properties. Washington REIT shares are publicly traded on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE:WRE).
