Bristow Group Announces Public Offering of Common Stock and Convertible Senior Notes

HOUSTON, June 9 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Bristow Group Inc. (NYSE: BRS) today announced that it intends to offer, subject to market and other conditions, an aggregate of 4,100,000 shares of common stock and, in a concurrent offering, approximately $100 million principal amount of convertible senior notes due 2038 (the "notes"), through offerings registered under the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Securities Act").

Bristow intends to grant the underwriters of the proposed common stock offering an option to purchase up to an additional 615,000 shares of common stock. Bristow also intends to grant the underwriters of the proposed notes offering an option to purchase up to an additional $15 million aggregate principal amount of notes.

The notes will be convertible, under certain circumstances, using a net share settlement process, into a combination of cash and Bristow's common stock. In general, upon conversion of a note, the holder of such note will receive cash equal to the principal amount of the note and common stock for the note's conversion value in excess of the principal amount of the note.

The Company intends to use the net proceeds from both offerings to fund the purchase of additional aircraft and for general corporate purposes.

The common stock and the notes are being offered pursuant to an automatically effective registration statement filed today with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

In connection with the common stock offering, Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC, Goldman, Sachs & Co. and J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. are acting as joint book-running managers and representatives of the underwriters, who will include Howard Weil Incorporated, Johnson Rice & Company L.L.C., SunTrust Capital Markets, Inc. and Wells Fargo Securities, LLC.

In connection with the notes offering, Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC, Goldman, Sachs & Co. and J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. are acting as joint book-running managers.

Each of the offerings is being made only by means of a prospectus and related preliminary prospectus supplement, which will be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC").
