

3M Company Board of Directors
Nominating and Governance Committee Charter
(As Amended February 6, 2024)

- A. Purpose: The Nominating and Governance Committee (the "Committee") of the Board of Directors of 3M Company establishes Board membership criteria, assists the Board by identifying individuals qualified to become Board members, recommends to the Board matters of corporate governance, facilitates the annual review of the performance of the Board and its committees, periodically reviews CEO and management succession plans, and periodically reviews other matters relating to the governance of the Company.
- B. Membership: The Committee's membership is determined by the Board and consists of at least three directors. The members of the Committee shall meet the independence requirements of the New York Stock Exchange.
- C. Roles and Responsibilities: The responsibilities of the Committee include:
 - 1. Board and Committee Membership
 - a. Periodically review with the Board the appropriate size of the Board and the requisite skills and characteristics of its members as set forth below.
 - b. It is the intent of the Board that the Board, itself, will be a high-performance organization creating competitive advantage for the Company. To perform as such, the Board will be comprised of individuals who have distinguished records of leadership and success in their arena of activity and who will make substantial contributions to Board operations and effectively represent the interests of all stockholders.
 - c. The Board's assessment of Board candidates includes, but is not limited to, consideration of: (i) roles and contributions valuable to the business community; (ii) personal qualities of leadership, character, judgment, and whether the candidate possesses and maintains throughout service on the Board a reputation in the community at large of integrity, trust, respect, competence, and adherence to the highest ethical standards; (iii) relevant knowledge and diversity of background and experience in such things as business, manufacturing, technology, finance and accounting, marketing, international business, government, and the like; or (iv) whether the candidate is free of conflicts and has the time required for preparation, participation, and attendance at all meetings. A director's qualifications in light of these criteria is considered at least each time the director is re-nominated for Board membership.
 - d. Review the resignation of directors whose principal occupation or business association changes, or other circumstances arise which may raise questions about the director's continuing qualifications in relation to the Board membership criteria referred to above and recommend to the Board what action the Board should take with respect to the resignation.
 - e. Review the Board's committee structure and recommend to the Board the appointment of committee members and chairs.

2. Selection of Qualified Director Candidates

- a. Identify individuals that the Committee believes are qualified to become Board members in accordance with the Board Membership Criteria set forth above and recommend that the Board select such nominee or nominees to stand for election at the next meeting of stockholders of the Company in which directors will be elected.
- b. In the event there is a vacancy on the Board, identify individuals that the Committee believes are qualified to become Board members in accordance with the Board Membership Criteria set forth above, and recommend such person or persons for appointment to the Board.
- c. Review and evaluate all stockholder nominees for director (submitted in accordance with the Company's Bylaws) in accordance with the Board Membership Criteria set forth above.
- d. The Nominating and Governance Committee considers qualified director candidates from several sources, including stockholders, and evaluates candidates against the current Board Membership Criteria described above. In addition to these minimum requirements, the Committee will also evaluate whether the candidate's skills are complementary to the existing Board members' skills, the Board's needs for particular expertise in fields such as business, manufacturing, technology, financial, marketing, international, governmental, or other areas of expertise, and assess the candidate's impact on Board dynamics and effectiveness. The Committee selects candidates that best suit the Board's current needs and recommends one or more of such individuals to the Board. Exacting membership criteria and a rigorous selection process help ensure that candidates recommended to the Board will effectively represent the balanced best interests of all stockholders.

3. Corporate Governance

- a. Review the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines at least annually and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.
- b. Develop and recommend to the Board standards to be applied in making determinations on the types of relationships that constitute material relationships between the Company and a director for purposes of determining director independence.
- c. Review and approve any transaction between the Company and any related person, which is required to be disclosed under the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission.
- d. Review and recommend to the Board proposed changes to the Company's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws.
- e. Review shareholder proposals relating to corporate governance and other matters and recommend to the Board the Company's response to such proposals.

4. Board and Committee Self-Assessment. Develop and recommend to the Board for its approval an annual self-assessment process of the Board and its committees and oversee the process. Based on this process, the Board will make an assessment reviewing areas in which the Board and/or Management believe improvements could be made to increase the effectiveness of the Board.

5. Succession Planning. Review and make recommendations to the Board with respect to the selection of individuals to occupy corporate officers positions.
6. Miscellaneous Matters
