Leslie Stone Heisz Elected to Ingram Micro Board of Directors

SANTA ANA, Calif., Feb. 21 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Ingram Micro Inc. (NYSE: IM), the world's largest technology distributor, today announced that its board of directors elected Leslie Stone Heisz to serve as an independent director effective March 1, 2007, expanding the board to 13 members.

Heisz, an experienced investment banking and finance executive, currently is a managing director of the Los Angeles office of Lazard Freres & Co., where she provides strategic advisory services for clients in a variety of industries. Before joining Lazard in 2003, she was managing director of the Los Angeles office of Dresdner Kleinwort Wasserstein (and its predecessor Wasserstein Perella & Co.) for six years, specializing in mergers and acquisitions and leading the Gaming and Leisure Group. She was also a vice president at Salomon Brothers, where she developed the firm's industry-leading gaming practice, and a senior consultant specializing in strategic information systems at Price Waterhouse.

Heisz also has experience on both public and private corporate boards. She currently is a board member for International Game Technology, a publicly-traded manufacturer and operator of electronic gaming devices, and for Eldorado Resorts LLC, a privately held owner and operator of casino hotels.

"Leslie brings a valuable combination of financial expertise, general management background and board experience to Ingram Micro," said Kent B. Foster, chairman of the board, Ingram Micro Inc. "She's led more than 50 successful mergers and acquisitions, restructurings and public offerings, so she's well suited for a company focused on growth, while her experience on other boards provides additional insight on corporate governance and directorship. I look forward to her leadership, and our Board welcomes Leslie to the team."

Ms. Heisz received a Bachelor's of Science degree in economics from the University of California at Los Angeles and an M.B.A. from the UCLA Anderson School of Management. She and her family live in Los Angeles.
