Ingram Micro Canada Adds Global Technology Systems' Power Solutions to Mobile Device Portfolio

New Alliance With Mobile Power Technology Leader Brings Reliable Battery and Charger Options and Recurring Revenue Opportunities to Resellers Throughout Canada

MISSISSAUGA, ON -- (Marketwired) -- 03/31/15 -- Ingram Micro Inc. (NYSE: IM) today announced a new business relationship with Global Technology Systems, Inc. (GTS). Under the new alliance, Ingram Micro Canada will offer GTS' full suite of high-performance mobile power products to channel partners throughout Canada.

Now available to Ingram Micro channel partners in Canada, the GTS line of mobile power products supports mobile computers, handheld scanners, portable printers, two-way radios and other mobile devices, giving resellers a valuable way to provide essential battery and charger solutions to their customers.

"As mobile device adoption continues to reach critical mass, there is nothing more important to business users today than keeping their business tools powered up and performing in optimal condition," says Suzanne Macdonald, Director for National Solution Providers/Data Capture/Point of Sale, Ingram Micro Canada. "GTS is an important go-to resource for mobile power in the industry. Their wide range of offerings gives our mutual resellers a valuable recurring revenue stream and represents an excellent addition to our growing portfolio."

"The mobile device market is explosive and marked by demand for an exceptional user experience," says Kara Dion, Director of Marketing at GTS. "We are very pleased to team with Ingram Micro to give our mutual channel partners throughout Canada an effective way to meet this demand, while staying connected with their customers and adding ongoing value to the relationship through the sale of our award-winning solutions."

Recognized for its quick order turnaround, dependable stock and flexible drop shipment options, GTS takes pride in its industry-leading warranty programs and the technical expertise and support it provides reseller partners.
