Standard & Poor's Ratings Services Upgrades Prologis to BBB+

Rating Raised on Stronger Financial Profile, Outlook Stable

SAN FRANCISCO, March 27, 2014 /PRNewswire/ -- Prologis, Inc. (NYSE: PLD), the leading global owner, operator and developer of industrial real estate, today announced that Standard and Poor's (S&P) Ratings Services raised the company's corporate credit and senior unsecured debt ratings to BBB+, from BBB, with a stable outlook.

S&P cited the company's early completion of its "post-merger integration, portfolio repositioning, and de-leveraging plan in mid-2013" as rationale for the upgrade. S&P added: "Prologis emerged with a tighter business strategy with a focus on select global and regional markets, a streamlined investment management business that has fewer and longer-duration funds, and lower financial risk."

S&P's research update stated Prologis' stable outlook reflects the view that "Prologis is well positioned to execute its three-year plan given favorable industrial subsector conditions, strong management capabilities, and more supportive financial policies."

"This upgrade represents another important achievement in the current growth phase of our company," said Thomas S. Olinger, chief financial officer, Prologis. "We are pleased S&P recognizes the quality of our global portfolio, industry-leading governance, financial strength, and unique growth prospects."
