January 26, 2011

Conference Call on ExxonMobil's Annual Energy Outlook

Media call scheduled Thursday, January 27, 2011 at 10 a.m. Eastern Time

IRVING, Texas--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Media are invited to participate in a conference call on ExxonMobil's Outlook for Energy at 10 a.m. ET Thursday, January 27.

Presenting the Outlook will be William Colton, vice president, Corporate Strategic Planning, and Kenneth Cohen, vice president, Public and Government Affairs. The 20 minute presentation will be followed by time for questions and discussion.

Media can listen and ask questions by phoning 888-417-2254 (Domestic) or 719-325-2234 (International). Please reference confirmation code 3931842. The presentation slides will be available at www.exxonmobil.com/energyoutlookpresentation. You should begin this procedure at least 10-15 minutes prior to the start of the call. The call will begin at 10:00 a.m. ET, 9:00 a.m. CT and is scheduled to last approximately one hour.

ExxonMobil's Outlook for Energy is a comprehensive look at long-term trends in energy demand, supply, emissions and technology. The report, updated each year, is built upon detailed analysis of data from about 100 countries, incorporating publicly available information as well as in-house expertise. ExxonMobil uses the Outlook to guide long-term investment decisions.

ExxonMobil, the largest publicly traded international oil and gas company, uses technology and innovation to help meet the world's growing energy needs. ExxonMobil holds an industry-leading inventory of resources, is the largest refiner and marketer of petroleum products, and its chemical company is one of the largest in the world. For more information, visit www.exxonmobil.com.

Source: Exxon Mobil Corporation