CHARTER OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS (the “Charter”)

Dated March 26, 2025

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) of IceCure Medical Ltd. (the “Company”) has constituted and established a Compensation Committee (the “Committee”) with the authority, responsibility and specific duties described in this Charter. This Charter does not derogate from nor supersede, and instead will be read in conjunction with, the terms set forth in the Compensation Policy for the Company’s office holders (as defined under the Companies Law (as defined below)) (the “Office Holders” and “Compensation Policy”, respectively) to be recommended to the Board by the Committee, and adopted by the Board and the Company’s shareholders in accordance with the requirements set forth in the Israeli Companies Law, 5759-1999 and the regulations promulgated thereunder (the “Companies Law”). If any term of this Charter contradicts the requirements under the Companies Law relating to the Compensation Policy, or the Compensation Policy itself, then the terms of the Companies Law and the Compensation Policy will prevail.

I. PURPOSES.

The purposes of the Committee are to:

1. Assist the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities relating to compensation of the Company’s directors, Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”) and other Office Holders and Executive Officers pursuant to the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), and the Nasdaq Stock Market Listing Rules (the “Nasdaq Rules”);
2. Review and evaluate the compensation plans, policies and programs of the Company, and make recommendations to the Board and shareholders of the Company relating to compensation to be provided to the Office Holders, and, if applicable, other executive officers;
3. Assist the Board in administering the Company’s equity incentive plans; and
4. Produce appropriate reports on executive compensation for public disclosure including, to the extent required, under applicable securities laws, the rules and regulations promulgated by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) and the Companies Law, or as otherwise deemed advisable by the Board.

The purposes and further provisions specified in this Charter are meant to serve as guidelines, are subject to applicable law, and the Committee is delegated the authority to adopt such additional procedures and standards as it deems necessary or advisable from time to time to fulfill its responsibilities. Unless otherwise prescribed in this Charter, the Articles of Association of the Company or applicable law, the rules and procedures applicable to the operation of the Board shall apply to the operation of the Committee with any necessary changes. Nothing herein is intended to expand applicable standards of liability under Israeli or U.S. federal securities law for directors of a corporation.

II. MEMBERSHIP.

1. The Committee's membership shall satisfy the following requirements:
 - A. The Committee shall have three (3) or more members.
 - B. The members of the Committee shall be independent (an "Independent Director") (or be subject to an applicable exception) as determined in accordance with applicable law, including Rule 10C-1 of the Exchange Act and the Nasdaq Rules.
 - C. To the extent Article IX below shall not apply, each "external director" appointed under the Companies Law (an "External Director") shall be a member of the Committee. A majority of the members of the Committee shall be External Directors, or, if so permitted pursuant to the Companies Law, "unaffiliated directors" as defined in the Companies Law ("Unaffiliated Directors").
2. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent Article IX below shall not apply, the Chairman of the Board or any director employed by or otherwise providing services to the Company or to a Controlling Shareholder (as such term is defined under the Companies Law) or any entity controlled by a Controlling Shareholder of the Company may not serve on the Committee. To the extent Article IX below shall not apply, any member of the Committee who is not an External Director must be a director whose total compensation does not exceed the amounts being paid by the Company to each External Director.
3. Subject to applicable law, (i) the Committee's members shall be appointed by and serve at the discretion of the Board, (ii) members shall serve until their successors are duly designated and qualified, (iii) any member of the Committee may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by a resolution of the Board, and (iv) any vacancy on the Committee occurring for any cause whatsoever (or without cause) may be filled by a resolution of the Board.
4. The Board shall designate one (1) of the External Directors, or to the extent Article IX below applies, one (1) of the Independent Directors, as the Committee's chairperson ("Chairperson").
5. The Chairperson shall be designated by the Board. To the extent applicable the Chairperson shall be an External Director.
6. To the extent Article IX below shall not apply, a member of the Committee may not receive directly or indirectly from the Company any compensatory fee except as provided in the regulations promulgated under the Companies Law pertaining to External Directors' compensation.

III. MEETINGS AND AUTHORITY.

1. The Committee shall meet as circumstances require. The Chairperson will preside at each meeting of the Committee and, in consultation with the other members of the Committee then present, shall determine the length of such meeting and the agenda of items to be addressed at such meeting. The presence (in person or via telephone or other means of communication) of a majority of the members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at a meeting of the Committee, and the act of a majority of those present at any meeting at which there is a quorum and who are entitled to vote on the matter shall be the act of the Committee, provided, however, to the extent Article IX below shall not apply, that at least one (1) of those present shall be an External Director.

2. The Committee may ask members of management or others to attend meetings and provide pertinent information, as necessary. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent Article IX below shall not apply, (i) any person who is, pursuant to the Companies Law, forbidden from serving as a member of the Committee, shall not be present at any meeting of the Committee (during its discussions or its decision making), unless the Chairperson has determined that such person is required during the presentation of a certain topic to the Committee, provided, however, that an employee of the Company, who is not a Controlling Shareholder or Relative thereof (as such term is defined under the Companies Law), is permitted, if the Committee so requests, to be present for the discussions, but not the decision making, that take place at a meeting, and provided, further, that the Company's legal counsel and the Company's secretary, who are not Controlling Shareholders or Relatives thereof, are permitted, if the Committee so requests, to be present at a meeting (during discussions and/or decision making), and (ii) the CEO shall also not be present during voting or deliberations on his or her compensation.
3. Subject to applicable law, the Committee may delegate its authority to subcommittees established from time to time by the Committee. Such subcommittees shall consist of one (1) or more members of the Committee or the Board and shall report to the Committee.

IV. RETENTION OF OUTSIDE ADVISERS.

1. The Committee shall have the power, without Board approval and at the Company's expense (which shall be funded appropriately by the Company), to retain, oversee the work of, and subsequently terminate independent, outside legal counsel, compensation consultants and other experts and consultants to assist the Committee in connection with its responsibilities, and shall have the sole and direct authority to approve such advisers' compensation and other retention terms.
2. The Committee may select a compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser to the Committee only after taking into consideration all factors relevant to that person's independence from the Company's management, including the following:
 - A. The provision of other services to the Company by the firm that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser;
 - B. The amount of fees received from the Company by the firm that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser, as a percentage of the total revenue of the person that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser (to the extent that such information is reasonably available);
 - C. The policies and procedures of the firm that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser that are designed to prevent conflicts of interest;
 - D. Any business or personal relationship of the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser with a member of the Committee;
 - E. Any ordinary shares of the Company owned by the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser; and
 - F. Any business or personal relationship of the compensation consultant, legal counsel, other adviser or the firm employing the adviser with an executive officer of the Company.

3. None of the above independence criteria shall: (a) require the Committee to implement or act consistently with the advice or recommendations of the compensation consultant, independent legal counsel or other adviser to the Committee; or (b) affect the ability or obligation of the Committee to exercise its own judgment in fulfillment of the duties of the Committee.
4. Furthermore, none of the above criteria need be considered by the Committee in retaining an adviser who only provides (i) consulting on any broad-based plan that does not discriminate in scope, terms, or operation, in favor of executive officers or directors of the Company, and that is available generally to all salaried employees of the Company; or (ii) information that either is not customized for the Company or that is customized based on parameters that are not developed by the compensation consultant. In addition, none of the above criteria needs to be considered by the Committee if it seeks advice from in-house legal counsel to the Company.

V. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES.

The Committee shall have the power and authority of the Board to perform the duties and to fulfill the responsibilities detailed below. The Committee's approval of any matter below shall not derogate from the requirements of the Companies Law pursuant to which approval of the Board and, in certain cases, the Company's shareholders is required for certain acts or transactions, and under such circumstances the Committee's approval shall constitute only a recommendation to any such body.

1. Recommending to the Board the initial Compensation Policy of the Company (if not previously adopted by the Board) and subsequently reviewing from time to time and recommending to the Board for determination the overall compensation of the Company to be paid to the CEO and other Office Holders (including any employment agreements to be entered into by the Company therewith), with a view to rewarding management appropriately for their contributions to achieving the Company's corporate goals and objectives, as determined by the Committee, and aligning the Company's compensation policies with such objectives and shareholders' interests, in each case taking into account the Compensation Policy.
2. Recommending whether a Compensation Policy should continue in effect, if the then-current policy has a term of greater than five (5) years from the date of consummation of the Company's initial public offering, or otherwise three (3) years (approval of either a new Compensation Policy or the continuation of an existing Compensation Policy must in any case occur after five (5) years from the date of consummation of the Company's initial public offering, or otherwise every three (3) years).
3. Recommending to the Board periodic updates to the Compensation Policy.
4. Assessing implementation of and adherence to the Compensation Policy.
5. Reviewing and approving any specific corporate goals and objectives relevant to the compensation of the CEO and other Office Holders, adopted under the then-effective Compensation Policy; determining the compensation of the CEO and other Office Holders based on such evaluation; and, where applicable, approving exemptions from the requirement to obtain shareholder approval for the employment terms and compensation of a prospective CEO, in accordance with the Companies Law.

6. The Committee shall have the authority to exercise all rights, authority and functions of the Board under the Company's clawback policy (the "Clawback Policy"), including without limitation, the authority to interpret the terms thereof; provided, however, that, except as otherwise expressly authorized to do so by a resolution of the Board, the Committee shall not be authorized to amend the Clawback Policy. Subject to any limitation under applicable law, the Committee may authorize and empower any officer or employee of the Company to take any actions necessary or appropriate to carry out the purpose and intent of the Clawback Policy (other than with respect to any recovery under the Clawback Policy).
7. Reviewing and, subject to applicable law, recommending for Board approval, the grant of options, restricted shares, restricted share units, share appreciation rights and other equity-based grants (each, an "Award") consistent with the Company's incentive compensation plan or plans then in effect (collectively, the "Plans") and Compensation Policy, and, subject to applicable law, administering the Plans. The Committee may make recommendations to the Board with respect to incentive compensation plans, including reservation of shares for issuance thereunder.
8. Oversee compliance with the compensation reporting requirements of the U.S. SEC to the extent applicable or to the extent the Committee determines that disclosures are desirable even if not required.
9. Review and periodically evaluate and make recommendations to the Board regarding the compensation and benefits for the Company's non-employee directors, taking into account the Compensation Policy.
10. Determine whether to recommend that the Board adopt a share ownership policy for directors and executive officers.
11. Review and discuss with management, if appropriate, any conflicts of interest raised by the work of a compensation consultant or advisor retained by the Committee or management and how such conflict is being addressed, and prepare or review any disclosure in the Company's filings required in accordance with applicable SEC rules and regulations.
12. Perform such other activities and functions as are required by applicable law, stock exchange rules or provisions of the Company's charter documents, or as are otherwise necessary and advisable, in its or the Board's discretion, for the efficient discharge of its duties.

VI. REPORTING.

The Committee will apprise the Board regularly of its decisions and recommendations and of significant developments in the course of performing the above responsibilities and duties.

VII. REVIEW.

The Committee shall annually review and reassess the adequacy of this Charter and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval. In addition, the Committee shall annually review its own performance under this Charter and applicable laws and regulations.

VIII. MINUTES.

The Committee will maintain written minutes of its meetings.
