Phunware Appoints Matt Lull as Executive Vice President & Chief Cryptocurrency Officer

AUSTIN, Texas, April 21, 2022 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Phunware, Inc. \(NASDAQ: PHUN\) (the "Company"), a fully-integrated enterprise cloud platform for mobile that provides products, solutions, data and services for brands worldwide, announced today that Matt Lull, a 30-year veteran in technology and finance for Fortune 500 companies, has been hired as the Company's first-ever Executive Vice President and Chief Cryptocurrency Officer, effective April 18, 2022.

"We are extremely excited to continue expanding our core executive team, this time adding one of the world's first public company Chief Cryptocurrency Officer positions in the world," said Alan S. Knitowski, President, CEO and Co-Founder of Phunware. "Matt is an exceptional find for our business and has an extremely rare combination of skill sets and experience which intersect perfectly with our core strategic focus on the intersection of mobile, cloud, big data and blockchain worldwide."

Prior to joining Phunware, Matt spent 18 years at Citrix Systems (NASDAQ: CTXS), most recently serving as Managing Director of Technology Strategy for Cloud Innovation Partners. During his time at Citrix, he founded its cloud computing partner ecosystem and was responsible for developing and managing other ecosystems, which included all line-of-business application ISVs, as well as most of Citrix's core desktop virtualization infrastructure partners across servers, storage, networking, monitoring and security. Prior to Citrix, Matt worked with Fortune 500 companies as a consultant with Accenture (NYSE: ACN) on dozens of enterprise-grade, full-service, application design, development and deployment projects on mainframes, client server and web platforms, culminating with the advent of ERP and the technical and business agility efficiencies it delivered.

Shifting focus to the cryptocurrencies and decentralized web infrastructure composing Web 3.0, exposure to different technologies and ecosystems served Matt extremely well, enabling him to not only work closely with market leading protocols globally, but also allowing him to better understand and leverage the underlying tokenomics, product / market fit and governance of advanced cryptocurrency and digital asset ecosystems central to Decentralized Finance (DeFi).

Matt graduated cum laude from the University of Miami with a BBA in Finance and will spend his time and focus at Phunware in executing the Company's strategic and tactical initiatives around software, hardware, cloud and DeFi, including the treasury, ecosystem, market and crypto exchange activities underlying its direct ownership of Bitcoin, Ether, digital assets, PhunToken, PhunCoin and PhunWallet.

"Phunware's history as an enterprise-grade mobile application platform, coupled with its stature as a compliant, doxxed, transparent and fully regulated and audited public company, uniquely position it within the worldwide crypto community to capitalize on the intersection between consumer identity, global brands, community development and trust,” said Matt Lull, Executive Vice President and Chief Cryptocurrency Officer of Phunware. “The decentralized web is currently positioned to be the next major wave of computing and we here at Phunware plan to be at the tip of the proverbial spear in helping sovereign people worldwide reap its core utility, benefits and freedom at scale.”
