AMC Entertainment Holdings, Inc. Announces First Lien Notes Offering and Conditional Notice of Redemption for Existing Odeon Notes

LEAWOOD, Kan.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- AMC Entertainment Holdings, Inc. (NYSE: AMC) (the "Company," or "AMC"), announced today that Muvico, LLC, a wholly-owned indirect subsidiary of AMC, has commenced an offering of $1,730 million aggregate principal amount of first lien notes due 2031 (the "Notes") in a private offering (the "Offering"), subject to market and other conditions. The Notes will be guaranteed on a joint and several basis by the Company and each of its existing and future direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries that guarantee obligations under the Company's new $750 million term loan facility (the "New Term Loan Facility") which is expected to be entered into concurrently with consummation of the Offering. The net proceeds from the Offering, together with the proceeds from the New Term Loan Facility, and cash on hand, will be used to (i) fund the redemption in full of $400 million aggregate principal amount of 12.750% Senior Secured Notes due 2027 (the "Odeon Notes") issued by Odeon Finco PLC ("Odeon"), a wholly-owned direct subsidiary of Odeon Cinemas Group Limited and an indirect subsidiary of AMC, (ii) refinance the Company's existing term loan facility in full, and (iii) pay related fees, costs, premiums and expenses in connection with such transactions.

Concurrently with the commencement of the Offering, Odeon delivered a notice of conditional full redemption (the "Notice") to holders of the Odeon Notes to redeem the Odeon Notes in full (the "Redemption"). The Redemption is conditioned upon the consummation of one or more debt financing transactions resulting in aggregate gross proceeds to the Company, its affiliates and its subsidiaries (including Odeon), of at least $2,480 million, which may include the Offering and the New Term Loan Facility, contemporaneously with or prior to the applicable redemption date. There can be no assurances as to when and if such debt financing transactions will be completed or such conditions satisfied and the Company may waive the conditions at its discretion.

The Notes and related guarantees are being offered only to persons reasonably believed to be qualified institutional buyers in reliance on Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), and outside the United States, only to non-U.S. investors pursuant to Regulation S. The Notes have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act or the securities laws of any other jurisdiction and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent an effective registration statement or an applicable exemption from registration requirements or in a transaction not subject to the registration requirements of the Securities Act or any state securities laws.

This press release shall not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any security and shall not constitute an offer, solicitation or sale in any jurisdiction in which such offering, solicitation or sale would be unlawful. This press release is being issued pursuant to and in accordance with Rule 135c under the Securities Act.

This press release does not constitute a notice of redemption of the Odeon Notes. Information concerning the terms and conditions of the Redemption is described in the notice of conditional full redemption distributed to holders of the Odeon Notes by the trustee under the indenture governing the Odeon Notes.

Examples of forward-looking statements include statements the Company makes regarding the expected use of proceeds from the transactions described herein, including the Offering and the Redemption. Any forward-looking statement speaks only as of the date on which it is made. These forward-looking statements may include, among other things, statements related to AMC’s current expectations regarding the performance of its business, financial results, liquidity and capital resources and are based on information available at the time the statements are made and/or management’s good faith belief as of that time with respect to future events, and are subject to risks, trends, uncertainties and other facts that could cause actual performance or results to differ materially from those expressed in or suggested by the forward-looking statements. These risks, trends, uncertainties and facts include, but are not limited to: the sufficiency of AMC’s existing cash and cash equivalents and available borrowing capacity; AMC’s ability to obtain additional liquidity, which if not realized or insufficient to generate the material amounts of additional liquidity that will be required unless it is able to achieve more normalized levels of operating revenues, likely would result with AMC seeking an in-court or out-of-court restructuring of its liabilities; the effectiveness of the refinancing transactions completed in the third quarter of 2025 and the ability to further equitize existing debt; increased use of alternative film delivery methods or other forms of entertainment; the continued recovery of the North American and international box office; AMC’s significant indebtedness, including its ability to meet its covenants and limitations on AMC’s ability to take advantage of certain business opportunities imposed by such covenants; shrinking exclusive theatrical release windows; the seasonality of AMC’s revenue and working capital; intense competition in the geographic areas in which AMC operates; risks relating to impairment losses, including with respect to goodwill and other intangibles, and theatre and other closure charges; motion picture production, promotion, marketing, and performance including labor stoppages affecting the production, supply and release schedule of theatrical motion picture content and choice of distributors to release fewer feature-length films as a result of the additional financial burden imposed by tariffs; the use of artificial intelligence (“AI”) technology in the filmmaking process and audience acceptance of movies made utilizing AI technology; general and international economic, political, regulatory and other risks, including but not limited to rising interest rates; AMC’s lack of control over distributors of films; limitations on the availability of capital, including on the authorized number of AMC common stock; dilution of voting power caused by recent sales of AMC common stock and through the issuance of AMC common stock underlying Muvico, LLC’s exchangeable notes and the issuance of preferred stock; AMC’s ability to achieve expected synergies, benefits and performance from its strategic initiatives; AMC’s ability to refinance its indebtedness on favorable terms; AMC’s ability to optimize its theatre circuit; AMC’s ability to recognize interest deduction carryforwards, net operating loss carryforwards, and other tax attributes to reduce future tax liability; supply chain disruptions, labor shortages, increased cost and inflation; and other factors discussed in the reports AMC has filed with the SEC. Should one or more of these risks, trends, uncertainties, or facts materialize, or should underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from those indicated or anticipated by the forward-looking statements contained herein. Accordingly, the Company cautions you against relying on forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date they are made.

Forward-looking statements should not be read as a guarantee of future performance or results and will not necessarily be accurate indications of the times at, or by, which such performance or results will be achieved.
