

Marathon Patent Group Announces Second Settlement and License Agreement on Its Sampo Patent Portfolio

ALEXANDRIA, VA -- (Marketwired) -- 07/23/13 -- Marathon Patent Group, Inc. (OTCBB: MARAD) ("Marathon"), a patent licensing company, announced today that its wholly owned subsidiary, Sampo IP, LLC, has entered into a license and settlement agreement with a leading technology company. The settlement ends all litigation between the parties, including a counterclaim filed by the defendant in the Northern District of California.

This is the second license and settlement agreement for the Sampo portfolio that Marathon has announced in the past week. Marathon announced its first licensing and settlement agreement on the Sampo patents on June 18, 2013. Marathon's Sampo IP, LLC subsidiary initiated its licensing campaign in March, 2013. Ongoing infringement continues, and the Sampo portfolio is currently being enforced against additional defendants.

The Sampo patents, each titled "Centrifugal Communication and Collaboration Method", cover claims that facilitate communicating information among members of a distributed discussion group using communication devices and a central agent.

Commenting on the announcement, Doug Croxall, Marathon's Founder and CEO, stated, "Today's announcement of having secured the second settlement and license agreement on the Sampo patents, both having occurred within the first four months of our initial patent licensing campaign, speaks directly to the quality of the patent portfolio. These two settlements lay important groundwork with respect to our future plans."
