Herbalife Nutrition to Establish One Campus for Global Headquarters in Los Angeles, CA

LOS ANGELES--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Premier global nutrition company, Herbalife Nutrition, announced today that it will remain in Los Angeles and create a single campus, combining its corporate headquarters with its North American operations. A long-time goal of the company, the consolidation of office space will bring together the company's LA-based workforce and support its culture of collaboration and innovation.

"Personal connections have always been a defining element of our company culture," said John Agwunobi, Chairman and CEO of Herbalife Nutrition. "We believe this is the right time for this strategic move to establish a single campus that will further strengthen the collaborative nature of our talented employees."

The company plans to rent its downtown office space located at LA Live and move those employees to its other campus in Los Angeles where the company owns an office building and surrounding property. The move is anticipated to take place towards the end of 2023. Work has already begun upgrading the campus to enhance the workplace, yet additional improvements will also be carried out. The newly renovated office space is also a meeting destination for its local distributors as well as its distributor leadership from around the world visiting Los Angeles.
