Richard MacPherson commented: "We are eager to participate in these exclusive investor conferences, which provide a strong platform to showcase Birchtech's progress and outlook to an institutional investor base in support of our planned uplisting to a major U.S. exchange. Over the past quarter, we have advanced our air business with consistent revenues and strengthened our water treatment commercialization efforts through key pre-commercial initiatives. With growing industry recognition of our intellectual property portfolio and a clear path to long-term revenue growth, we look forward to engaging with investors to highlight our execution and long-term value creation strategy."

Registration is required for conference participation. For more information or to schedule a meeting with management, please contact MZ Group at BCHT@mzgroup.us.
