Following the appointment of Ms. Davis, the Board will comprise 7 Directors, 4 of which are independent.

"We are pleased to welcome Karen to the Shift4 Board," said Jared Isaacman, chairman and chief executive officer of Shift4. "Karen's deep technology expertise from start-up to public companies will be invaluable to the strategic direction of Shift4."

Ms. Davis is Director of Early Stage Projects at X (formerly Google X) and focuses on providing strategic direction and oversight for a portfolio of early-stage technology ventures. Ms. Davis has held various senior positions at Google in her career – initially from 2003 through 2008 -- serving as a Principal in their New Business Development group, and overseeing operations for the company's groundbreaking IPO in 2004. More recently, in September 2016 she returned to Google as Director for mapping and local search strategy and business development by way of Alphabet's acquisition of Urban Engines, a geospatial analytics platform. Ms. Davis was Urban Engines' first business hire and helped establish foundational business development, strategy, and operations functions in her role.
