- B. Assist the Board by identifying individuals qualified to become members of the Board, consistent with the criteria approved of by the Board, and recommending director nominees to the Board for election at the annual meetings of stockholders or for appointment to fill vacancies on the Board;
- C. Advise the Board about the appropriate composition of the Board and its committees;
- D. Lead the Board in the annual performance evaluation of the Board and its committees, and of management;
- E. Direct all matters relating to the succession of the Company’s Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”); and
- F. Perform such other functions as the Board may assign to the Committee from time to time.

II. Membership

The Committee must consist of not less than three members of the Board. Each member of the Committee must be “independent” as defined by the listing requirements of the New York Stock Exchange; provided, however, that this requirement is subject to the transition periods as set forth in the NYSE Listed Company Manual. Notwithstanding the foregoing membership requirements, no action of the Committee will be invalid by reason of any such requirement not being met at the time such action is taken.

The members of the Committee and its Chairman will be selected by the Board and will serve at the pleasure of the Board. Any vacancy on the Committee will be filled by, and any member of the Committee may be removed by, an affirmative vote of a majority of the Board. If a Chairman is not designated by the Board or is not present at a meeting, the Committee may designate a Chairman by majority vote of the Committee members then in attendance.

III. Authority and Responsibilities

The Committee is delegated all authority of the Board as may be required or advisable to fulfill the purposes of the Committee. Without limiting the generality of the preceding statements, the Committee has the authority, and is entrusted with the responsibility, to take the following actions:

A. Authority

The Committee has the authority to:

1. Conduct or authorize investigations into any matter within the scope of the responsibilities delegated to the Committee as it deems appropriate, including the authority to request any officer, employee or advisor of the Company to meet with the Committee or any advisors engaged by the Committee.
2. Retain and determine funding for legal counsel and other experts and advisors, including the sole authority to retain, approve the fees payable to, amend the engagement with, and terminate any search firm to assist the Committee in identifying director candidates, as it deems necessary or appropriate to fulfill its responsibilities. The Committee may also utilize the services of the Company's regular outside legal counsel or other advisors to the Company. The Company must provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of (a) compensation to any advisors employed by the Committee; and (b) ordinary administrative expenses of the Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties.
3. Delegate to its Chairman, any one of its members or any subcommittee it may form, the responsibility and authority for any particular matter, as it deems appropriate from time to time under the circumstances.

B. Responsibilities

The Committee has the following responsibilities:

Corporate Governance

1. The Committee will prepare and recommend to the Board for adoption appropriate corporate governance guidelines and consider any other corporate governance issues that arise from time to time and develop appropriate recommendations for the Board.

2. Each year, the Committee will review and reassess the adequacy of the Company's corporate governance guidelines and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.

Director Nominations

Except where the Company is legally required by contract or otherwise to provide third parties with the ability to nominate directors, the Committee will perform the following actions:

3. Identify individuals qualified to become Board members and recommend to the Board the persons to be nominated by the Board for election as directors at the annual meeting of stockholders, and the persons to be elected by the Board to fill any vacancies on the Board.
4. Prior to recommending to the Board that an existing director be nominated for election as a director at the annual meeting of stockholders, the Committee will consider and review the director's:
 - past Board and committee meeting attendance and performance;
 - length of Board service;
 - personal and professional integrity, including commitment to the Company's core values;
 - relevant experience, skills, qualifications and contributions that the existing director brings to the Board; and
 - independence under applicable standards.
5. In the event that a vacancy on the Board arises, the Committee will seek and identify a qualified director nominee to be recommended to the Board for either appointment by the Board to serve the remainder of the term of the director position that is vacant or election at the next annual meeting of stockholders. To identify such a nominee, the Committee should solicit recommendations from existing directors and senior management. These recommendations should be considered by the Committee along with any recommendations that have been received from stockholders as discussed below. The Committee may, in its discretion, retain a search firm to provide additional candidates. Prior to recommending to the Board that a person be elected to fill a vacancy on the Board, the Committee should consider the entirety of each candidate's credentials. In particular, the Committee may consider, among other factors, the candidate's:

- diversity;
- relevant skills, qualifications and experience in the context of the needs of the Board;
- independence under applicable standards;
- business judgment;
- service on boards of directors of other companies;
- personal and professional integrity, including commitment to the Company's core values;
- openness and ability to work as part of a team;
- willingness to commit the required time to serve as a Board member;
- industry or other specialized expertise; and
- relevant business and financial experience.

As set forth above, the Committee may consider diversity as one of a number of factors in reviewing a director candidate. It is expected that the Committee will view diversity broadly to include diversity of backgrounds, skills and viewpoint as well as traditional diversity concepts such as race or gender, considering the optimal enhancement of the current mix of talent and experience on, the Board.

6. The Committee will treat recommendations for directors that are received from the Company's stockholders equally with recommendations received from any other source; provided, however, that in order for such stockholder recommendations to be considered, the recommendations must comply with the procedures outlined in the Company's proxy statement for its annual meeting of stockholders.
7. The Committee will review the criteria for the nomination of director candidates and approve changes to the criteria, as appropriate.

Director Independence

Each year, the Committee will:

8. Review the relationships between the Company and each director and report the results of its review to the Board, which will then determine which directors satisfy the applicable independence standards; and

9. Determine whether or not each director serving on a Board committee is independent, disinterested, a non-employee director or an outside director under the standards applicable to the committees on which such director is serving or may serve and report the results of its review to the Board, which will then determine which directors qualify as an independent, disinterested, non-employee or outside director under applicable standards.

S-K") promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC").
