Evolv Technology to Provide a Safer, Frictionless Fan Experience at New State-of-the-Art Lower.com Field, Home of MLS Team Columbus Crew

WALTHAM, MA / ACCESSWIRE / July 3, 2021 /Evolv Technology, the leader in weapons detection screening, today announced that Lower.com Field, will launch with its artificial intelligence-based system, Evolv Express®. Lower.com Field is a new $313.9 million stadium with the fan experience at the center of its design. The new state-of-the-art stadium was designed to transform the fan experience throughout their visit, starting with security. As supporters enter the stadium, they will experience enhanced safety and a free-flowing screening system by walking through at the pace of life. It is anticipated that more than 20,000 supporters will be screened prior to entering the downtown Columbus, Ohio venue, which is set to open at full capacity this Saturday, July 3, when the Columbus Crew hosts the New England Revolution for the venue's inaugural match.

"The fan experience and safety were crucial elements to the design at Lower.com Field," said Brandon Covert, Vice President - Information Technology for Haslam Sports Group. "Our goal is to provide a world-class experience for all fans to enter and move around the stadium in a safe and secure manner. We had a unique opportunity to work with one of the most technologically advanced and best-in-class partners to bring our vision for the stadium to life. After testing Evolv Express weapons detection screening, we are confident in our belief that it will help us maintain a safe and frictionless experience for all fans attending matches and events at our new stadium."

Built on its Evolv Cortex AI™ software platform, Evolv continually improves its customers' security posture through machine learning and on-demand analytical insights in a way that legacy metal detectors and other analog screening systems cannot. Evolv's innovative security screening technology has supported more than ten major sporting events in 2021, including the U.S. Open Golf Championship earlier this month

"We are delighted to support the new state-of-the-art Lower.com Field with our frictionless weapons detection screening," said Peter George, CEO, Evolv Technology. "Our partnership has been a perfect match with a mutual vision, to transform the fan experience, while ensuring what we believe are the highest levels of safety. We could not be more pleased to be a part of this inaugural day and look forward to seeing our vision come to life."

Evolv's systems have been used to screen more than 60 million people, second only to the Department of Homeland Security's Transportation Security Administration in screening people in the U.S.

Evolv Express®:

- Screens an unparalleled 3,600 people per hour, per system
- Delivers up to a 70% reduction in cost
- Is 10 times faster than traditional metal detectors

The new screening system will be in place on launch day. Supporters will not have to stop or empty their pockets unless directed to do so by security personnel.

Forward-Looking Statements

This document contains certain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the federal securities laws with respect to the proposed transaction between NewHold Investment Corp. ("NewHold") and Evolv Technologies, Inc. ("Evolv"). These forward-looking statements generally are identified by the words "believe," "project," "expect," "anticipate," "estimate," "intend," "strategy," "future," "opportunity," "plan," "may," "should," "will," "would," "will be," "will continue," "will likely result," and similar expressions. Forward-looking statements are predictions, projections and other statements about future events that are based on current expectations and assumptions and, as a result, are subject to risks and uncertainties. Many factors could cause actual future events to differ materially from the forward-looking statements in this document, including but not limited to: (i) the risk that the transaction may not be completed in a timely manner or at all, which may adversely affect the price of NewHold's securities, (iii) the failure to satisfy the conditions to the consummation of the transaction, including the adoption of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of March 5, 2021 (the "Merger Agreement"), by and among NewHold, Evolv and NHIC Merger Sub Inc., a Delaware corporation and a direct wholly owned subsidiary of NewHold, by the stockholders of NewHold, the satisfaction of the minimum trust account amount following redemptions by NewHold's public stockholders and the receipt of certain governmental and regulatory approvals, (iv) the lack of a third party valuation in determining whether or not to pursue the transaction, (v) the inability to complete the PIPE investment in connection with the transaction, (vi) the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstance that could give rise to the termination of the Merger Agreement, (vii) the effect of the announcement or pendency of the transaction on Evolv Aviation's business relationships, operating results and business generally, (viii) risks that the proposed transaction disrupts current plans and operations of Evolv and potential difficulties in Evolv employee retention as a result of the transaction, (ix) the outcome of any legal proceedings that may be instituted against Evolv or against NewHold related to the Merger Agreement or the transaction, (x) the ability to maintain the listing of NewHold's securities on a national securities exchange, (xi) the price of NewHold's securities may be volatile due to a variety of factors, including changes in the competitive and highly regulated industries in which NewHold plans to operate or Evolv operates, variations in operating performance across competitors, changes in laws and regulations affecting NewHold's or Evolv's business and changes in the combined capital structure, (xii) the ability to implement business plans, forecasts, and other expectations after the completion of the transaction, and identify and realize additional opportunities, and (xiii) the risk of downturns and a changing regulatory landscape in Evolv's highly competitive industry. The foregoing list of factors is not exhaustive. You should carefully consider the foregoing factors and the other risks and uncertainties described in the "Risk Factors" section of NewHold's registration on Form S-1 (File No. 333-239822), the registration statement on Form S-4 discussed above and other documents filed by NewHold from time to time with the SEC. These filings identify and address other important risks and uncertainties that could cause actual events and results to differ materially from those contained in the forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made. Readers are cautioned not to put undue reliance on forward-looking statements, and except as required by law NewHold and Evolv assume no obligation and do not intend to update or revise these forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise. Neither NewHold nor Evolv gives any assurance that either NewHold or Evolv or the combined company will achieve its expectations.

Any financial projections in this communication are forward-looking statements that are based on assumptions that are inherently subject to significant uncertainties and contingencies, many of which are beyond NewHold's and Evolv's control. While all projections are necessarily speculative, NewHold and Evolv believe that the preparation of prospective financial information involves increasingly higher levels of uncertainty the further out the projection extends from the date of preparation. The assumptions and estimates underlying the projected results are inherently uncertain and are subject to a wide variety of significant business, economic and competitive risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in the projections. The inclusion of projections in this communication should not be regarded as an indication that NewHold and Evolv, or their representatives, considered or consider the projections to be a reliable prediction of future events.
