

Everything Blockchain's Management Increases Stake in Company's Success and Remains Bullish

Current Stock Price a Buying Opportunity for Management Team and Others

Jacksonville, Florida, June 16, 2022 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Everything Blockchain Inc. (OTC: OBTX), today announced an accumulation of stock from its management team in anticipation of substantial growth. Through recent acquisitions, the company has curated a group of innovative sub brands that will solidify Everything Blockchain as a leader in data protection and upend the traditional database market with blockchain-powered platforms of trust.

Over the past quarter, the company has accelerated product development, business operations and technological innovation to capitalize on a rapidly expanding market opportunity. The company is poised to enter the data protection market this summer, with the launch of its EB Control SaaS application. EB Control will be sold through a recently launched channel program. Everything Blockchain will also be announcing EB Build later this year.

"Today's stock accumulation by management demonstrates the strength of Everything Blockchain's balance sheet. It reflects the confidence we have in our business, strategy and the market opportunity," said Mike Hawkins, chairman, Everything Blockchain. "We foresee significant benefits to the enterprise through blockchain technology and our team includes some of the leading industry experts in the field. We are constantly making advancements in blockchain engineering to deliver innovative solutions and capabilities."

According to Fortune Business insights, the global blockchain market is projected to grow from $7.18 billion in 2022 to $163.83 billion by 2029, at a CAGR of 56.3% in forecast period, 2022-2029. Both the market forecast and the Company's recently filed 2023 Q1 results lead management to remain optimistic about the company's direction, market trajectory and upcoming launch of its blockchain and zero-trust solutions. While still in development, these solutions will enable everyone, from the consumer to the enterprise, to leverage the power of blockchain to provide speed, security and energy efficiency.
