Dolby Atmos and Dolby Atmos Music Demonstration

Immersive audio and spatial audio are the buzz words for audio today. Dolby Atmos is playing a large role in delivering immersive content through streaming content providers, such as Netflix and Amazon. From Taylor Swift to The Doors recent remix of "Riders on the Storm" Dolby Atmos Music is rapidly gaining popularity, catching up with Atmos in streaming favorites for suspenseful immersive sound. With its Platin Audio immersive speakers, WiSA Technologies will be demonstrating both Atmos formats compared to standard audio setups.

When: 5:15 to 6:00 pm Tuesday and Wednesday. Each demo lasts about 10 minutes.

Where: LD Micro Main Event in room 149
