Tellurian Transfers TELL Listing to the NYSE American

HOUSTON--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Tellurian Inc. (Tellurian) announced today it will transfer the listing of its common stock from the Nasdaq Capital Market to the NYSE American.

Executive Chairman Charif Souki said, "Global natural gas shortages and recent history-making prices indicate the pressing need for additional liquefaction export capacity in the United States. Tellurian is poised to contribute to America's status as an energy superpower, having achieved both regulatory permits and commercial success for Driftwood LNG phase one development. We have turned our focus to putting together a world class banking group and have started site preparation, in advance of giving our partner Bechtel notice to proceed with construction expected first quarter 2022. Transferring our stock listing to the NYSE American allows us to leverage the exchange's prestigious trading platform for our shareholders' benefit."

"We're excited to welcome Tellurian as it transfers to NYSE American and joins our community of innovators and disruptors," said John Tuttle, Vice Chairman and Chief Commercial Officer, NYSE Group. "We look forward to working with Tellurian as it supplies the world with a reliable, clean energy supply."

Tellurian expects its common stock to begin trading on the NYSE American on November 2, 2021 and will remain under the current symbol "TELL". Trading of the common stock on its current platform is expected to continue until the close of business on November 1, 2021.
