Sonim Strengthens Its Leadership in Europe by Showcasing Latest Innovations at MWC 2025

San Diego, California and Barcelona, Spain--(Newsfile Corp. - February 26, 2025) - Sonim Technologies (NASDAQ: SONM), a U.S.-based leader in professional rugged mobile solutions, is proud to announce its presence at Mobile World Congress (MWC) 2025 in Barcelona, taking place from March 3-6.

Sonim will spotlight its cutting-edge innovations and connect with industry leaders from multiple key locations, including:

- Sonim Meeting Room in Hall 3, PMR3B29Ex
- Teledyne FLIR in Hall 7, 7B6, where the highly anticipated XP Pro Thermal 5G smartphone will be officially revealed
- pureLIFI Stand in Hall 7, 7B27, to learn more about the Sonim 5G fixed wireless access self-install router
- Qualcomm in Hall 3, 3E10, to learn more about the professional rugged Sonim H700 mobile hotspot featuring 5G Rel 17 and Wi-Fi 7

Additionally, Sonim will feature in the Fierce Networks FNTV Executive Showcase and take part in a peer-to-peer panel discussion, further demonstrating the company's thought leadership in critical communications.

At MWC, attendees can explore Sonim's game-changing devices, including the XP Pro Thermal, engineered with thermal imaging to meet the most demanding professional challenges, and the XP400 and XP100, both recently launched for Europe and South Africa market. Sonim will also showcase its rugged mobile hotspots, self-install FWA innovation, SonimWare, and the Sonim IRIS software suite, leading the way in rugged, high-performance solutions that redefine what's possible in challenging environments.

Building on the momentum from its European market expansion in 2024, Sonim has successfully launched new devices through top distributors, carriers, and partners, earning a strong reputation as the trusted partner for professional rugged mobility and critical communications.

"As we continue to grow our presence in Europe, Sonim is proud to deliver durable, innovative solutions designed to empower professionals and exceed expectations," said Anette Gaven, VP of Marketing at Sonim Technologies. "MWC 2025 offers a unique platform to connect with partners, carriers, and resellers as we drive the future of rugged mobility and communications forward."
