Safe Harbor Statement

Hanmi Financial Corporation (the “Company”) cautions investors that any statements contained herein that are not historical facts are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the “safe harbor” provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, including, but not limited to, those statements regarding operating and financial performance, financial position and liquidity, business strategies, regulatory and competitive outlook, investment and expenditure plans, financing needs and availability, plans and objectives, merger or sale activity, and all other forecasts and statements of expectation or assumption. These statements involve risks and uncertainties that are difficult to predict. Investors should not rely on any forward-looking statement and should consider risks, such as changes in governmental policy, legislation and regulations, economic climate uncertainty, fluctuations in interest rate and credit risk, competitive pressures, the ability to succeed in new markets, balance sheet management, and other operational factors. Forward-looking statements are based upon the good faith beliefs and expectations of management as of this date only and are further subject to additional risks and uncertainties, including, but not limited to, the risk factors set forth in the Company’s most recent Form 10-K, 10-Q and other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”). Investors are urged to review the Company’s SEC filings. The Company disclaims any obligation to update or revise the forward-looking statements herein.

For non-GAAP reconciliation, please see the Appendix and the Company’s earnings release on January 26, 2016.
