

SPRINKLR, INC.

CHARTER OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Audit Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Sprinklr, Inc. (the “Company”) is to assist the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities with respect to:

- the Company’s accounting and financial reporting processes, systems of internal control, financial statement audits and the integrity of the Company’s financial statements;
- the selection, engagement terms, fees, qualifications, independence, and performance of the registered public accounting firms engaged as the Company’s independent outside auditors for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or performing audit services (the “Auditors”);
- the performance of the Company’s internal audit function; and
- the Company’s compliance with legal and regulatory compliance, including risk assessment and compliance with ethical standards adopted by the Company.

The Committee will also prepare the report required by the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) to be included in the Company’s annual proxy statement.

COMPOSITION

The members of the Committee, including the Chairperson, will be members of the Board appointed by, and will serve at the discretion of, the Board. Vacancies occurring on the Committee will be filled by the Board. Resignation or removal of a Committee member from the Board for any reason will automatically constitute resignation or removal from the Committee.

The Committee will consist of at least three members of the Board. Each member of the Committee will satisfy (i) the independence, financial literacy and other requirements imposed by applicable law and stock exchange listing requirements and (ii) any other qualifications determined by the Board. At least one member of the Committee will satisfy the applicable financial-sophistication requirements and any other requirement for accounting or related financial management expertise as determined by the Board and required by the SEC and stock exchange listing requirements.

AUTHORITY

The Committee will have access to all Company books, records, facilities and personnel as deemed necessary or appropriate by any member of the Committee. If the Committee concludes that it must retain legal, accounting or other outside advisors, it may do so and determine compensation for those advisors at the Company’s expense. The Committee may also pay any ordinary administrative expenses it deems appropriate in carrying out its duties at the expense of the Company. The Committee will have authority to require that any of the Company’s personnel or outside advisors attend any meeting of the Committee or meet with any member of the Committee or any of its advisors.

The Chairperson shall have the delegated authority to act on behalf of the Committee in connection with (1) approval of the retention of outside service providers and advisors (including negotiation and execution of their engagement letters), (2) preapproval of audit or non-audit services, (3) reviewing with management the Company's proposed earnings press releases and other financial information and guidance regarding the Company's results of operations provided publicly or to ratings agencies, (4) approval of payment of ordinary administrative and other expenses incurred by the Committee described in the previous paragraphs, and (5) as may otherwise be determined by the Committee. The Committee also may form and delegate authority to one or more subcommittees consisting of one or more members of the Board (whether or not he, she or they are on the Committee) to the extent allowed under applicable law and stock exchange listing requirements. By delegating an issue to the Chairperson or a subcommittee, the Committee does not surrender any authority over that issue. Although the Committee may act on any issue that has been delegated to the Chairperson or a subcommittee, doing so will not limit or restrict future action by the Chairperson or subcommittee on any matters delegated to it. Any action or decision of the Chairperson or a subcommittee will be presented to the full Committee at its next scheduled meeting. By approving this Charter, the Board delegates authority to the Committee with respect to these responsibilities.

RESPONSIBILITIES

The Committee's responsibilities are for oversight, as described under "Purpose" above. The members of the Committee are not employees of the Company, and they do not perform management's or any Auditors' functions. The Committee relies on the expertise and knowledge of management, the internal auditors, and any Auditors in carrying out its oversight responsibilities. Management is responsible for preparing accurate and complete financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"), crafting periodic reports, and establishing and maintaining appropriate accounting principles and financial reporting policies and satisfactory internal control over financial reporting. The Auditors will audit the Company's annual consolidated financial statements and, when required, the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting and review the Company's quarterly financial statements. It is not the Committee's responsibility to prepare or certify the Company's financial statements, guarantee the audits or reports of the Auditors, certify as to whether any Auditors are "independent" under applicable law or stock exchange listing requirements, or ensure that the financial statements or periodic reports are complete and accurate, conform to GAAP, or otherwise comply with applicable law or stock exchange listing requirements or the Company's policies.

The Committee shall have the following responsibilities; provided, however, that this list of responsibilities is intended to be a guide and to remain flexible to account for changing circumstances and needs. Accordingly, the Committee may depart from or supplement such responsibilities, and establish policies and procedures, to the extent permitted by applicable law and stock exchange listing requirements.

Auditor Management

1. Evaluation and Retention of Auditors. The Committee will, at least annually, evaluate the performance of the Auditors, assess their independence and qualifications, including the performance and qualifications of the lead partner (taking into account, where appropriate, the views of management and the internal auditors or other personnel responsible for the internal audit function), determine whether to retain, or terminate the engagement of, existing Auditors, and determine the fees of any Auditors and any other registered public accounting firm engaged for the financial reporting process. In addition, the Committee may replace any existing Auditors or other registered public accounting firm engaged for the financial reporting process with a different public accounting firm. The Committee shall recommend the selection of the Auditors for ratification by the stockholders.

2. Approving Audit and Non-Audit Engagements. The Committee will review audit plans, the adequacy of staffing, the fees to be paid to Auditors, and oversee the negotiation and execution of any engagement letters on behalf of the Company. The Committee will approve all audit and non-audit related services that the Auditors or other registered public accounting firm provides to the Company before the engagement begins, unless applicable law and stock exchange listing requirements allow otherwise. The Committee may establish pre-approval policies and procedures or delegate pre-approval authority to one or more Committee members as permitted by applicable law and stock exchange listing requirements.

3. Communications Regarding Auditor Independence. Prior to engagement of any prospective Auditors and at least annually thereafter, the Committee will receive and review a written disclosure by the prospective Auditors or existing Auditors, as applicable, of all relationships between the prospective Auditors or existing Auditors, as applicable, or their affiliates, and the Company, or persons in financial oversight roles at the Company, that may reasonably be thought to bear on independence, and will discuss with the prospective Auditors or existing auditors, as applicable, the potential effects of such relationships on the independence of the prospective Auditors, consistent with the applicable rules of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board ("PCAOB").

4. Report from Auditors. At least annually, the Committee will obtain and review a report by the Auditors describing that firm's internal quality-control procedures, any material issues raised by the firm's most recent internal quality-control review or peer review or by any inquiry or investigation by governmental or professional authorities, within the preceding five years, with respect to one or more independent audits performed by that firm, as well as any steps taken to address the issues raised.

5. Audit Partner Rotation. The Committee will monitor the rotation of the partners of the Auditors on the Company's audit engagement team as required by applicable laws and rules and to consider periodically and, if deemed appropriate, adopt a policy regarding rotation of auditing firms.

6. Employees and Former Employees of Auditors. The Committee will oversee the policies and procedures as required by applicable law and stock exchange listing requirements governing how the Company may employ individuals who are or once were employed by the Auditors.

Financial Review and Disclosure

7. Annual Audit Results. The Committee will review with management and the Auditors the results of the Company's annual financial statement audit, including:

- the Auditors' assessment of the quality of the Company's accounting principles and practices;
- the Auditors' views about qualitative aspects of the Company's significant accounting practices and the reasonableness of significant judgments and estimates (including material changes in estimates and analyses of the effects of alternative GAAP methods on the financial statements);
- all misstatements identified during the audit (other than those the Auditors believe to be trivial);
- the adequacy of the disclosures in the financial statements; and
- any other matters that the Auditors must communicate to the Committee under applicable accounting or auditing standards.

8. Audited Financial Statement Review; Quarterly and Annual Reports. The Committee will review the annual audited financial statements, the quarterly financial statements and the Company's "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" and "Risk Factors," as appropriate, with management and the Auditors. The Committee will be responsible for recommending to the Board whether the proposed annual audited financial statements should be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K.

9. Earnings Announcements. The Committee will review and discuss with management and the Auditors any proposed earnings press releases and other financial information and guidance regarding the Company's results of operations provided publicly or to ratings agencies (including, without limitation, reviewing any pro forma or non-GAAP information). To the extent practicable, the Committee will review in advance the script for any earnings or finance-related conference calls to be held for the benefit of the public, analysts and ratings agencies.

10. Accounting Principles and Policies. The Committee will review and discuss with management and the Auditors significant issues regarding accounting principles and financial-statement presentation, including:

- critical accounting policies and practices;
- alternative accounting policies available under GAAP;
- the potential impact on the Company's financial statements of alternative treatments and any off-balance sheet structures; and
- any other significant reporting issues and judgments, significant regulatory, legal, and accounting initiatives, or developments that may have a material impact on the Company's financial statements, compliance programs, and policies.

The Committee will review with the Auditors and management, if appropriate, any written communication, such as any management letter or internal-control letter, and monitor management's response to such communications.

11. Management and Auditor Analyses. The Committee will review any analyses prepared by management or the Auditors setting forth significant financial reporting issues and judgments made in connection with the preparation of the financial statements, including analyses of the effects of alternative GAAP methods on the financial statements.

12. Auditor Communications. At least annually, the Committee will discuss with the Auditors the matters required to be discussed by Auditing Standard No. 1301, Communications with Audit Committees, as adopted by the PCAOB (including any successor rule adopted by the PCAOB).

13. Management Cooperation with Audit. The Committee will evaluate management's cooperation with the Auditors during their audit examination, including any significant difficulties or disagreements encountered during the audit, if any.

14. National Office Communications. To review with the Auditors, as appropriate, communications between the audit team and the Auditors' national office with respect to accounting or auditing issues presented by the engagement.

Internal Control and Procedures

15. Risk Assessment and Management. The Committee will review and discuss with management and the Auditors the Company's processes and policies on risk identification, management and assessment in all areas of the Company's business, but the Board shall continue to have overall responsibility for evaluating key business risks faced by the Company, including but not limited to information security, competition and regulation. Areas of focus for the Committee shall include the Company's policies and other matters relating to the Company's investments, cash management and foreign exchange management, major financial risk exposures, the adequacy and effectiveness of the Company's information security policies and practices and the internal controls regarding information security, and the steps taken by management to monitor and mitigate or otherwise control these exposures and to identify future risks. The Committee will review and discuss with management the adequacy of the Company's insurance programs, including director and officer insurance, product liability insurance and general liability insurance.

16. Information Security and Data Privacy. The Committee will review the significant information security matters and concerns involving the Company, including cybersecurity, data privacy and related regulatory matters and legal compliance. The Company's Chief Information Security Officer and/or the Chief Information Officer, who, along with the Chief Compliance Officer and General Counsel, are responsible for implementing and maintaining the Company's cybersecurity risk assessment and management processes, will provide regular periodic reports to the Committee on information security matters, including the adequacy and effectiveness of the Company's information security policies and practices and the internal controls regarding information security, and will notify the chairperson of the Committee as soon as practicable of significant information security matters and concerns as they arise. Management will also provide regular periodic reports to the Committee on legal compliance matters, including data privacy compliance.

17. Internal Auditors. The Committee will review the audit plan of the Company's internal audit team and discuss with that team the adequacy and effectiveness of the Company's scope, staffing, and general audit approach. The Committee will review any significant reports prepared by the Company's internal auditors, as well as management's response. The head of the internal auditor will also report to and be evaluated by the Committee.

18. Internal Control over Financial Reporting; Disclosure Controls. The Committee will confer with management and the Auditors concerning the scope, design, adequacy and effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting, including responsibilities, budget and staff of the internal audit function, and to review the appointment or replacement of the senior internal audit executive or manager, and the Company's disclosure controls and procedures. The Committee will review reports on significant findings and recommendations with respect to internal controls over financial reporting, together with management responses and any special audit steps adopted in light of any material control deficiencies.

19. Correspondence with Regulators. The Committee will consider and review with management, the Auditors, and outside advisors or accountants any correspondence with regulators or governmental agencies and any published reports that raise material issues regarding the Company's financial statements or accounting policies.

20. Internal Control Report. At least annually (if required by applicable stock exchange listing requirements) or as may otherwise be determined by the Committee, the Committee will review a report by the Auditors describing its internal quality-control procedures and any material issues raised by (a) that firm's internal quality-control review, (b) any peer review of the firm's internal quality-control procedures or review, or (c) any inquiry or investigation by governmental or professional authorities conducted in the last five years of any audit performed by the Auditors.

21. Complaint Procedures. The Committee will oversee procedures for receiving, retaining and investigating the following:

- complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls, or auditing matters; and
- confidential and anonymous submissions by employees concerning questionable accounting or auditing matters.

In addition, the Committee will oversee procedures for receiving, retaining and investigating any “hotline” complaints or submissions delegated to the Committee by the Board.

22. Ethical Compliance. The Committee will review the results of management’s efforts to monitor compliance with the Company’s programs and policies designed to ensure compliance with applicable laws and stock exchange listing requirements, including the Company’s Code of Conduct and Ethics (“Code”). The Committee will consider any request by directors or executive officers of the Company for a waiver from the Code. Any approved waivers shall be promptly disclosed as required by applicable law and stock exchange listing requirements.

23. Related Party Transactions. The Committee will review and approve, in accordance with the Company’s policies, any related party transaction as defined by applicable law or stock exchange listing requirements.

Other Matters

24. Proxy Report. The Committee will oversee the preparation of any report of the Committee required by applicable law or stock exchange listing requirements to be included in the Company’s annual proxy statement.

25. Committee Self-Assessment; Charter Review. The Committee will annually evaluate its performance. The Committee shall also review and assess the adequacy of this Charter annually and shall recommend any proposed changes to the Board for its consideration.

26. Other Legal and Finance Matters. The Committee will review with management legal and regulatory compliance and any actual, pending or threatened legal or financial matters that could significantly affect the Company’s business or financial statements or as otherwise deemed appropriate by the Committee.

27. General Authority. The Committee shall perform such other functions and have such other powers as may be necessary or appropriate in the discharge of any of the foregoing.

MEETINGS AND MINUTES

The Committee will meet whenever its members deem a meeting necessary or appropriate. The Committee will determine where and when to meet. Unless otherwise determined by the Committee, each regularly scheduled meeting will conclude with an executive session that excludes members of management. As part of its responsibility to foster open communication, the Committee will meet periodically with management, personnel in charge of the internal audit function (if any) and the Auditors in separate executive sessions. From time to time, or when requested by the Board, the Chairperson of the Committee will report to the Board on the Committee's activities, discussions and actions.

The Committee will maintain written minutes of its meeting and regularly report to the Board on its actions and recommendations. The Committee may act by unanimous written consent; when it does so, those actions will be filed in the minute book.

Approved by the Board of Directors: August 21, 2025

Effective: August 21, 2025
