Red Robin Gourmet Burgers and Brews Gets Crafty, Pours Gold Medal-Winning Beers from Great American Beer Festival for Limited Time

Champion Craft Brews and New Adult Beverages Part of Spring Offerings Showcasing Commitment to "Burgers & Brews" GREENWOOD VILLAGE, Colo., April 5, 2016 /PRNewswire/ -- Belly up beer-lovers! Red Robin Gourmet Burgers and Brews (Red Robin) is serving up some of the country's top brews that have set the bar. More than 15 national and regional gold medal-winners from the 2015 Great American Beer Festival are being poured at Red Robin restaurants nationwide, with availability varying by restaurant while supplies last through June 5. Guests of legal drinking age can also choose to pair their favorite gourmet burger with the new nitrogen-infused Samuel Adams Nitro IPA or Not Your Father's Ginger Ale, the follow up to the highly sought after Not Your Father's Root Beer.

"Red Robin is committed to bringing the same quality and innovation to our bar program as we do with our cravable menu," said Jonathan Muhtar, senior vice president and chief marketing officer at Red Robin. "Our brand name was recently expanded to Red Robin Gourmet Burgers and Brews to reflect this commitment to offering the best selection of beers to our guests as nothing pairs better with a gourmet burger from Red Robin than a refreshing beer."

As part of the brand's "Burgers & Brews" platform, every Red Robin restaurant nationwide offers its 21 and older guests a dedicated bar space with craft, local and regional beers along with hand-crafted cocktails and a wine selection to enjoy. In addition to the new adult beverage offerings for the spring season, Red Robin is also expanding its $3, $5, $7, $9 appetizer platform to include brew-friendly Fried Pickle Nickels served with a side of campfire sauce – a creamy BBQ favorite.
