RENNOVA HEALTH, INC. DISCUSSES PROGRESS AND PLANS FOR MENTAL AND BEHAVIORAL HEALTH DIVISION WITH THE STOCK DAY PODCAST

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., June 16, 2022 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Rennova Health, Inc. (OTC: RNVA) Chief Executive Officer Seamus Lagan joined Stock Day host Sever Copley to discuss progress with the business and the Company's plans to develop a mental and behavioral health division.

Copley started off by asking about the performance of the current hospital operations. Lagan stated his belief that the business was now stabilized, helped by the recently secured Critical Access Designation, and that he believed the operations would now be cash flow positive and generate a profit.

Copley went on to ask about the status of previously discussed plans to add mental and behavioral health to the business. Lagan confirmed that a new division, Myrtle Recovery Centers, Inc., had been created and that the Company was finalizing a plan to utilize available space at owned properties to provide these services. Lagan further explained that having space available reduced the capital needs to minor refurbishment and decorating costs and confirmed the intention to employ someone with specific knowledge of the industry to head up this new division.

Copley then asked what could be expected over a two or three year period from the Company. Lagan explained the continued need for rural healthcare and the Company's plans to refine and prove a profitable model to create a foundation for further acquisitions in the future.

Copley finished by asking what message Lagan would like the Company's shareholders to take away from the interview. Lagan responded by confirming his confidence that the Company can deliver an excellent service to its customers and make a profit for its shareholders.
