Alico to Include JD Alexander On Board of Directors Slate

LABELLE, Fla., Aug. 23, 2007 (PRIME NEWSWIRE) -- Alico, Inc. (Nasdaq:ALCO), a land management company, announced that it has considered a request from Atlantic Blue Group, Inc. (Atlanticblue), which owns 50.6% of the Company's outstanding voting shares, that JD Alexander be included as one of Alico's nominees for its Board of Directors at the next Annual Meeting of Shareholders. Atlanticblue did not request that the size of the Company's Board of Directors or the number of Atlanticblue-related directors be increased. The Company noted that JD Alexander has previously served on the Company's Board, was a Vice President of the Company and the manager of its citrus division for 10 years. He then became a Florida State Representative and later a Florida State Senator and has extensive business, agricultural and governmental experience. JD Alexander is the current Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Atlanticblue and is the son of John R. Alexander, the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Alico. After reviewing the request and evaluating the credentials of JD Alexander, the Nominating and Governance Committee of the Board of Directors determined that the request is reasonable and appropriate and voted to recommend to the Company's Board that it include JD Alexander on the Company's slate of nominated directors in the proxy materials for the 2007 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, which will be held January 18, 2008. Other nominee recommendations will be decided in accordance with the Nominating Committee's procedures prior to the mailing of the Company's proxy materials for the meeting.
