

IRONNET, INC.

CHARTER OF THE NOMINATING AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors of IronNet, Inc. (the “Company”) is to:

- help the Board oversee the Company’s corporate governance functions and develop, update as necessary and recommend to the Board the governance principles applicable to the Company;
- identify, evaluate and recommend and communicate with candidates qualified to become Board members or nominees for directors of the Board consistent with criteria approved by the Board;
- oversee the Company’s environmental, social and governance (“ESG”) activities; and
- make other recommendations to the Board relating to the directors of the Company.

COMPOSITION

The members of the Committee, including the Chairperson, will be members of the Board appointed by, and will serve at the discretion of, the Board. Vacancies occurring on the Committee will be filled by the Board. Resignation or removal of a Committee member from the Board for any reason will automatically constitute resignation or removal from the Committee.

The Committee will consist of at least two members of the Board, and each member of the Committee will satisfy (i) the independence and other requirements imposed by applicable law and stock exchange listing requirements and (ii) any other qualifications determined by the Board.

AUTHORITY

The Committee will have access to all Company books, records, facilities and personnel as deemed necessary or appropriate by any member of the Committee. If the Committee concludes that it must retain legal, accounting or other outside advisors, it may do so and determine compensation terms for those advisors at the Company’s expense. The Committee shall have sole authority to retain and terminate executive search firms to help identify director candidates. The Committee may also pay any ordinary administrative expenses it deems appropriate in carrying out its duties at the expense of the Company. The Committee will have authority to require that any of the Company’s personnel or outside advisors attend any meeting of the Committee or meet with any member of the Committee or any of its advisors.

The Chairperson shall have the delegated authority to act on behalf of the Committee in connection with (1) approval of the retention of director search firms (including negotiation and execution of their engagement letters) and (2) as may otherwise be determined by the Committee. The Committee also may form and delegate authority to one or more subcommittees consisting of one or more members of the Board (whether or not he, she or they are on the Committee) to the extent allowed under applicable law and stock exchange listing requirements. By delegating an issue to the Chairperson or a subcommittee, the Committee does not surrender any authority over that issue. Although the Committee may act on any issue that has been delegated to the Chairperson or a subcommittee, doing so will not limit or restrict future action by the Chairperson or subcommittee on any matters delegated to it. Any action or decision of the Chairperson or a subcommittee will be presented to the full Committee at its next scheduled meeting. By approving this Charter, the Board delegates authority to the Committee with respect to these responsibilities.

RESPONSIBILITIES

The Committee's responsibilities are for oversight, as described under "Purpose" above. The members of the Committee are not employees of the Company, and they do not perform management's functions. The Committee relies on the expertise and knowledge of management in carrying out its oversight responsibilities. The Committee shall have the following responsibilities; provided, however, that this list of responsibilities is intended to be a guide and to remain flexible to account for changing circumstances and needs. Accordingly, the Committee may depart from or supplement such responsibilities, and establish policies and procedures, to the extent permitted by applicable law and stock exchange listing requirements. The Board will retain the right to act on all such matters without limiting the Committee's authority, subject to compliance with applicable law and stock exchange listing requirements.

1. Director Nominations. The Committee will identify and evaluate candidates to serve on the Board consistent with the criteria approved by the Board, including consideration of the expertise, qualifications, skills, attributes, contributions, diversity characteristics, tenure, potential conflicts of interest and independence of candidates in light of the Company's strategy, material risks and needs, and recommend to the full Board candidates for election to the Board. The Committee will also have responsibility for reviewing, evaluating and considering the recommendation for nomination of incumbent directors for re-election to the Board based on the criteria approved by the Board, as well as monitoring the size of the Board. The Committee will also recommend to the Board for selection, candidates to serve as nominees for director for the annual meeting of stockholders. The Committee shall also have the power and authority to consider recommendations for Board nominees and proposals submitted by the Company's stockholders, to recommend to the Board appropriate action on any such proposal or recommendation and to make any disclosures required by applicable law in the course of exercising its authority.

2. Management, Board and Committee Assessment. The Committee will periodically review the performance of management and the Board, including the Board committees, seeking input from senior management, the full Board and others. As appropriate, the Committee will make recommendations to the Board for areas of improvement. The assessment shall include evaluation of the Board's contribution as a whole and the Board's effectiveness in serving the best interests of the Company and its stockholders, specific areas in which the Board and/or management believe contributions could be improved, and overall Board composition, size and makeup. The factors to be considered shall include whether the directors, both individually and collectively, can and do provide the integrity, experience, judgment, commitment, skills, diversity and expertise appropriate for the Company. In assessing the directors, both individually and collectively, the Committee may consider the current needs of the Board and the Company to maintain a balance of knowledge, experience, diversity and capability in various areas. The Committee will also consider the independence of directors and the requirements imposed by applicable law and stock exchange listing requirements.

3. Board Committee Membership. The Committee will oversee the Board's committee structure and operations, including authority to delegate to subcommittees and committee reporting to the Board. The Committee will evaluate individual directors' interests, and prospective director independence, experience and the independence and requirements imposed by applicable law and stock exchange listing requirements and recommend to the entire Board annually the chairmanship and membership of each committee.

4. Stockholder Communications. The Committee shall periodically review and make recommendations to the Board regarding the Company's process for stockholder communications with the Board, and make such recommendations to the Board with respect thereto as the Committee deems appropriate. The Committee shall also review draft governance-related disclosures for the Company's proxy statement, updates to proxy advisory firm policies, proxy advisory firms' voting recommendations, and stockholder proxy voting outcomes.

5. Review Possible Conflicts of Interest. The Committee shall consider possible conflicts of interest of officers and directors as set forth in the Company's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, including reviewing, as necessary, any officer's request to accept a directorship position with another company, and make recommendations to the Board to prevent, minimize or eliminate such conflicts of interest.

6. Continuing Education. The Committee may institute plans or programs for the continuing education of directors and orientation of new directors, as it deems appropriate.

7. Corporate Governance Guidelines. The Committee will develop a set of corporate governance principles to be applicable to the Company, will periodically review and assess the Company's corporate governance guidelines, and, as appropriate, will recommend changes to the Board for its consideration.

8. Leadership Structure. The Committee shall consider the Board's leadership structure, including the separation of the chairperson of the Board and Chief Executive Officer¹ roles and/or appointment of a lead independent director of the Board, either permanently or for specific purposes, and make such recommendations to the Board with respect thereto as the Committee deems appropriate. The Committee shall also review and discuss the narrative disclosure regarding the Board leadership structure and role in risk oversight to be included in any public filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

9. Procedures for Information Dissemination. The Committee will periodically review the processes and procedures used by the Company to provide information to the Board and its committees and the scope of such information and make recommendations to the Board and management for improvement as appropriate.

10. ESG Oversight. The Committee shall generally oversee and discuss with management the Company's ESG activities and practices that are expected to have a significant impact on the

Company's performance, business activities or reputation. In furtherance of these responsibilities, the Committee shall periodically receive reports and provide feedback on the Company's ESG strategy, initiatives and policies.

11. Committee Self-Assessment; Charter Review. The Committee will annually evaluate its performance. The Committee shall also review and assess the adequacy of this Charter annually and shall recommend any proposed changes to the Board for its consideration.

12. General Authority. The Committee shall perform such other functions and have such other powers as may be necessary or appropriate in the discharge of any of the foregoing.

MEETINGS AND MINUTES

The Committee will meet whenever its members deem a meeting necessary or appropriate. The Committee will determine where and when to meet. Unless otherwise determined by the Committee, each regularly scheduled meeting will conclude with an executive session that excludes members of management. From time to time, or when requested by the Board, the Chairperson of the Committee will report to the Board.

The Committee will maintain written minutes of its meeting and regularly report to the Board on its actions and recommendations. The Committee may act by unanimous written consent; when it does so, those actions will be filed in the minute book.
