NEW YORK – February 22, 2023 – SiriusXM announced today its annual MLB Network Radio Spring Training Tour will begin Thursday, February 23, and continue through March 11. SiriusXM will deliver unparalleled preseason baseball audio coverage as MLB Network Radio's experts and insiders visit each MLB team camp, and Team USA as they prepare for the World Baseball Classic, to give listeners a comprehensive preview of every club.

The MLB Network Radio Spring Training Tour will consist of one-hour shows, each dedicated to a single team. SiriusXM's hosts – many of whom are former general managers or players – will interview players, managers and executives on location at various spring training ballparks and share an inside view of each club in preparation for the upcoming season.

Shows will be hosted by former general managers Jim Bowden, Jim Duquette and Steve Phillips, former major leaguers David Aardsma, Kevin Frandsen, Chris Gimenez, Eduardo Perez, Xavier Scruggs, and Ryan Spilborghs, as well as Jenny Cavnar, Mike Ferrin and Dani Wexelman.

MLB Network Radio is available to subscribers nationwide in their cars (channel 89) and on the SXM App at <https://siriusxm.us/2Pdwnu6>. After airing live, all spring training shows will be available to subscribers anytime on the SXM App.
