Surgalign Holdings Announces Management Changes

DEERFIELD, Ill., Sept. 23, 2021 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Surgalign Holdings, Inc., (NASDAQ: SRGA) a global medical technology company focused on elevating the standard of care by driving the evolution of digital surgery, today announced that the Company's Chief Financial and Operating Officer, Jonathon M. Singer, has resigned from the Company, effective October 15, 2021, to pursue another opportunity. Mr. Singer's resignation did not result from any disagreement with the Company. The Company is conducting a search for Mr. Singer's successor.

"Jon was an instrumental part of the leadership team during the significant transformation we have undertaken over the last two years, including the divestiture of the OEM business and the build out of a world class organization in support of our transition to becoming the leader in digital surgery," said Terry Rich, Surgalign's president and chief executive officer. "On behalf of the entire organization, I want to wish Jon the best of luck in the future."

"The organization has made tremendous progress since I joined the leadership team in 2017, both in terms of its long-term strategy as well as the day-to-day operations of the business," said Mr. Singer. "Understanding the significant capabilities of HOLO AI™, and knowing the quality and talent across the organization, I am confident that Surgalign is well positioned to revolutionize the way surgery is performed."

In conjunction with Mr. Singer's departure, the Company has promoted Chris Thunander to Vice President and Chief Accounting Officer. Mr. Thunander previously served as the Company's Director of Accounting and Finance. Prior to joining the Company, Mr. Thunander spent over a decade in public accounting with Ernst & Young. Mr. Thunander is a Certified Public Accountant, and received his Bachelors of Science in Business Administration as well as an MBA from the University of Dayton.
