SARASOTA, Fla.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Helios Technologies, Inc. (NYSE: HLIO) (“Helios” or the “Company”), a global leader in highly engineered motion control and electronic controls technology, today reported financial results for the first quarter ended March 29, 2025.

“Our first quarter results demonstrated a better-than-expected start to the year and further validates our continued execution of our financial plans to drive operating leverage, improve our cash conversion cycle, reduce debt, and strengthen our earnings power. Thanks to the global Helios team for staying focused on our controllables, our Q1 results exceeded our plan and further strengthened our balance sheet. We achieved a 23% increase in our operating income in the quarter on $16 million in incremental sales over the fourth quarter of last year, which shows the incremental operating leverage from increased volume. Through this volatile macro environment, we are pulling the levers we believe position us well for the long-term. We remain focused on investing in innovation and bringing new products to market. Our 'in the region for the region' manufacturing strategy is paying off as we navigate the tariff landscape and work to maximize what we produce locally. Finally, we have also been examining our product portfolio with a broader look at our assets while streamlining the organization in some areas, and allocating resources where they can be better utilized to grow our go-to-market initiatives this year,” said Sean Bagan, President, Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer of Helios.

Sales

- Changes in Market Mix: Compared with the first quarter of the prior-year period, Electronics segment revenues were relatively flat with slight growth in health and wellness and recreational markets offsetting declines in industrial and mobile markets; Hydraulics sales were down 11% primarily reflecting the weakness in the agriculture, mobile and industrial markets.
- By Region: year-over-year sales declined in all regions while sequentially sales were up 7% in Asia Pacific ("APAC"), 6% in the Americas and 20% in Europe, the Middle East and Africa ("EMEA").
- Other Impacts: foreign currency (FX) translation unfavorably impacted sales by $2.3 million in the first quarter 2025 compared with the year ago period.

Profits and margins

- Gross profit and margin impacts: gross profit declined 11%, or $7.3 million compared with the year ago period while gross margin contracted 110 basis points as declines in labor and overhead costs partially offset lower volume and higher material costs as a percentage of sales. Sequentially, gross profit improved on higher sales in both segments.

- Selling, engineering and administrative (“SEA”) expenses: declined $4.4 million, or 11%, compared with the year ago period reflecting cost reduction actions across the business and was down 70 bps as a percent of sales. Compared with the fourth quarter of 2024, SEA expenses increased $1.8 million, or 6%, primarily as a result of timing of full year compensation accruals, but was 60 bps lower as a percent of sales.
- Amortization of intangible assets: $8.3 million up 5% compared with the year ago period. The increase was primarily driven by the restructuring of the Helios Center for Engineering Excellence (HCEE).

Non-operating items

- Net interest expense: declined $0.8 million in the quarter compared with the year ago period. The prior year period interest expense benefited by $1.8 million from a recognized gain on an interest rate swap agreement. Excluding the impact of the interest rate swap agreement, interest expense was lower by $2.6 million due to carrying a lower debt balance throughout the period and lower interest rates.
- Effective tax rate: first quarter 2025 was 23.5% compared with 23.2% in the corresponding period of 2024. These effective rates vary in accordance with income levels and differing tax rates across the countries where products are sold.

Net income, diluted earnings per share (“EPS”), diluted Non-GAAP EPS, and adjusted EBITDA margin

- GAAP net income: reduced by $1.9 million compared with the year ago period primarily as a result from the 8% decline in sales. On a per diluted share basis, earnings decreased 21%, or $0.06, to $0.22.
- Diluted Non-GAAP EPS: decreased $0.09, or 17%, to $0.44 compared with the year ago period.
- Adjusted EBITDA margin: contracted 90 basis points to 17.3% compared with the year ago period reflecting the impact of lower sales.

First Quarter 2025 Hydraulics Segment Review

- Sales: declines in all regions resulted in a consolidated decline of 11% compared to last year. Lower sales were primarily driven by softness in the agriculture, mobile and industrial end markets. FX had a unfavorable $2.2 million impact on sales compared with the year ago period.
- Gross profit and margin drivers: lower gross profit and margin reflected lost leverage on lower volume compared with the year ago period. Material and variable costs declined year over year and were relatively flat as a percentage of sales.
- Operating income and operating margin: lower operating income primarily reflect lower sales which were partially offset by SEA expenses declining 12% over the year ago period.

Electronics Segment Review

(Refer to sales by geographic region and segment data in accompanying tables)

First Quarter 2025 Electronics Segment Review

- Sales: showed minimal variance as demand in APAC mostly offset the decline in the Americas and EMEA. Higher sales in health and wellness and recreational markets mostly offset declines in industrial and mobile end markets compared with the year ago period.
- Gross profit and margin drivers: gross profit declined slightly due to lower volume while margin held steady. Unfavorable mix was offset by improvement in labor and overhead.
- Operating income and operating margin: operating income increased 13% and operating margin expanded 140 bps, compared with the year ago period reflecting reductions in SEA expenses of 7% primarily due to lower labor and benefit costs.

Strengthening Cash Flow, Balance Sheet and Financial Flexibility

- Net cash provided by operations: Generated $19.0 million in the first quarter 2025, up 7% compared with the year ago period.
- Continued debt reduction: total debt at March 29, 2025 was $445.6 million down nearly 15% from $521.3 million at March 30, 2024.
- Cash and cash equivalents: as of March 29, 2025, were $45.9 million up 23% compared with the year ago period.

period reflecting the execution of a plan to align with sales trends. Inventory was down marginally from the fourth quarter of 2024 totalling $189.7 million.

- Net debt-to-adjusted EBITDA leverage ratio: improved to 2.7x ending first quarter compared with 3.1x at the end of the comparable year ago period. At the end of first quarter 2025, the Company had $352.6 million available on its revolving lines of credit.
- Capital expenditures: were $6.1 million in the first quarter 2025, or 3.1% of sales. This compares with $5.5 million, or 2.6% of sales in the year ago period.
- Dividends: Paid 113th consecutive quarterly cash dividend of $0.09 per share on April 22, 2025, a history of over 28 consecutive years of dividends.

Establishing Second Quarter 2025 Outlook<sup>1</sup>

Mr. Bagan continued, “We knew 2025 would present challenges from the various end market cycles and worked to factor a variety of scenarios into our initial full year outlook. We acknowledge that relative to when we first established our full year outlook, tariffs have created more uncertainty in the second half of 2025. We see a variety of potential outcomes depending upon final tariff rulings. We now have a third of the year already in the books with good visibility through the balance of the second quarter. While markets remain persistently weak, we are starting to see some positive trends forming in the order intake over the last several months. We have been selective with our capital expenditures and continue to be disciplined with cost control measures. These factors provide us a level of confidence in our next quarter projections. Markets could quickly shift and we are staying nimble and very close to our customers as we navigate through this unprecedented tariff environment together.”

For the second quarter of 2025 we expect:

- Total net sales: $198 to $206 million
- Adjusted EBITDA margin: 17.5% to 18.5%
- Diluted Non-GAAP EPS: $0.46 to $0.54

Helios has presented non-GAAP measures including adjusted operating income, adjusted operating margin, EBITDA, EBITDA margin, adjusted EBITDA, adjusted EBITDA margin, net debt-to-adjusted EBITDA, adjusted net income, and adjusted net income per diluted share and sales in constant currency. Helios believes that providing these specific Non-GAAP figures are important for investors and other readers of Helios financial statements, as they are used as analytical indicators by Helios management to better understand operating performance. The determination of the amounts that are excluded from these Non-GAAP measures is a matter of management judgment and depends upon, among other factors, the nature of the underlying expense or income recognized in a given period. You should not consider the inclusion of this additional information in isolation or as a substitute for results prepared in accordance with GAAP. Please carefully review the Non-GAAP reconciliations to the most directly comparable GAAP measures and the related additional information provided throughout. Because these metrics are Non-GAAP measures and are thus susceptible to varying calculations, these figures, as presented, may not be directly comparable to other similarly titled measures used by other companies.

This news release also presents forward-looking statements regarding Non-GAAP measures, including adjusted EBITDA, adjusted EBITDA margin and adjusted net income per diluted share. The Company is unable to present a quantitative reconciliation of these forward-looking Non-GAAP financial measures to their most directly comparable forward-looking GAAP financial measures because such information is not available, and management cannot reliably predict the necessary components of such GAAP measures without unreasonable effort or expense. In addition, the Company believes that such reconciliations would imply a degree of precision that would be confusing or misleading to investors. The unavailable information could have a significant impact on the Company’s 2025 financial results. These Non-GAAP financial measures are preliminary estimates and are subject to risks and uncertainties, including, among others, changes in connection with quarter-end and year-end adjustments. Any variation between the Company’s actual results and preliminary financial data set forth above may be material.

(A) Acquisition and financing-related expenses include costs associated with our M&A activities. We believe these costs are not representative of the Company's operational performance and it is therefore more meaningful to analyze results with the costs excluded. For the three months ended March 29, 2025, there were minimal other miscellaneous M&A costs.

(B) Our previously announced restructuring activities within our Hydraulics segment related to the creation of our two new Regional Operational Centers of Excellence ("CoE") are complete. We also continue to add capabilities and activities to our recently expanded Tijuana, Mexico facility to support our Electronics segment. Initial efforts have focused on circuit board assembly and wire harness production. While activities are currently paused, we continue to evaluate plans to move additional production activities to Tijuana in 2025. The initial phase of the restructuring activities to better optimize our European regional operations are complete. Additional phases of this project are currently paused, we continue to evaluate plans for restructuring activities to optimizing operations in the European Region. In January 2025, the Company began the early phases of restructuring the Helios Center of Engineering Excellence ("HCEE"). As the next phases of the restructuring plan begin, management plans to close the San Antonio office in June 2025, reassign resources to the operations at our other major facilities across the business, and eliminate certain positions. All substantial activities are planned to be moved out of San Antonio during the second quarter of 2025. For the three months ended March 29, 2025, the charges include non-recurring labor costs of $0.1 million, $0.1 million of severance, and manufacturing relocation and other costs of $0.1 million.

(C) Acquisition integration activities include costs associated with integrating our recently acquired businesses, which can occur up to 18 months after acquisition date. We believe these costs are not representative of the Company's operational performance and it is therefore more meaningful to analyze results with the costs excluded. For the three months ended March 29, 2025, there were no acquisition integration costs.

(D) Amortization of intangible assets presented here includes $0.4 million for capitalized software development costs included within cost of sales in the income statement for the three ended March 29, 2025, respectively.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures and Non-GAAP Forward-looking Financial Measures:

Adjusted operating income, adjusted operating margin, EBITDA, EBITDA margin, adjusted EBITDA, adjusted EBITDA margin, net debt-to-adjusted EBITDA, adjusted net income, adjusted net income per diluted share and sales in constant currency are not measures determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States, commonly known as GAAP. Nevertheless, Helios believes that providing these specific Non-GAAP figures are important for investors and other readers of Helios financial statements, as they are used as analytical indicators by Helios management to better understand operating performance. These Non-GAAP financial measures should be considered in addition to results prepared in accordance with GAAP and should not be considered a substitute for GAAP. Please carefully review the attached Non-GAAP reconciliations to the most directly comparable GAAP measures and the related additional information provided throughout. Because these metrics are Non-GAAP measures and are thus susceptible to varying calculations, these figures, as presented, may not be directly comparable to other similarly titled measures used by other companies. The Company does not provide a reconciliation of forward-looking Non-GAAP financial measures, such as adjusted EBITDA, adjusted EBITDA margin, adjusted net income and adjusted net income per diluted share disclosed above in our 2025 Outlook, to their comparable GAAP financial measures because it could not do so without unreasonable effort due to the unavailability of the information needed to calculate reconciling items and due to the variability, complexity and limited visibility of the adjusting items that would be excluded from the Non-GAAP financial measures in future periods.
