VESTA ANNOUNCES BOARD OF DIRECTORS CHANGE

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 20, 2021 /PRNewswire/ -- Corporación Inmobiliaria Vesta, S.A.B. de C.V. ("Vesta") (BMV: VESTA), one of Mexico's leading pure play industrial real estate developers, today announced the departure of Elizabeth Bell from its board of directors.

Since Jaguar now owns less than their initial 5% of the Company, Jaguar determined it is appropriate for Ms. Bell to resign from the Board of Directors effective December 31, 2021.

"On behalf of Vesta's shareholders and board, I would like to thank Liz for her important service and contributions to Vesta over the past year," said Lorenzo Dominique Berho, CEO of Vesta. "We wish her the very best in her future endeavors."

"I am extremely proud of Vesta's achievements and have truly enjoyed my brief time with this board and management team," said Bell. "Although, I feel now is the right time for me to transition off the board and focus on my other responsibilities. I'm excited to watch Vesta's continued future success."

Subsequent to her departure, Ms. Bell will be replaced by her appointed alternate board member, Ms. Daniela Berho Carranza, who has served on Vesta's board since 2014, also on the Company's Social and Environmental Responsibility Committee.
