Professional Diversity Network, Inc. Established a Japanese Subsidiary, Launching a New Phase of Its Asia Strategy and Global Expansion

CHICAGO, Oct. 13, 2025 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Professional Diversity Network, Inc. (Nasdaq: IPDN) ("IPDN" or the "Company"), a technology holding company focused on the application of AI technologies and AI-powered solutions, today announced the establishment of a wholly owned subsidiary in Tokyo, Japan. This marks a significant milestone in the Company's ongoing globalization strategy, and further strengthens its presence in Asia, with Japan serving as the central hub for business development, technological innovation, and strategic collaboration throughout the region.

The newly established IPDN's Japanese subsidiary will serve as the group's regional headquarter for Web3.0 and entertainment-related initiatives in Asia, focusing on the following four key strategic areas:

Real-World Asset Tokenization (RWA): Driving the digital transformation of traditional assets and enabling innovative cross-border investment opportunities.

Decentralized Finance (DeFi): Building a secure, transparent, and efficient blockchain-based financial ecosystem.

Non-Fungible Tokens (NFTs): Integrating entertainment and intellectual property resources to establish a diverse and sustainable digital asset value framework.

Distributed Storage Technology: Delivering secure and scalable data infrastructure to support the growth of the Web3.0 ecosystem.

In addition, IPDN's Japanese subsidiary plans to collaborate with leading entertainment groups and talent agencies across Asia to invest in and host global artists' concert tours in the region. By integrating Web3.0 technologies with entertainment content ecosystems, IPDN aims to explore new applications of blockchain technology within the media and entertainment industries – creating immersive, interactive, and value-driven digital experiences for users worldwide.

Japan has long been recognized as a global leader in both finance and entertainment. Tokyo, as a key financial and technological innovation center in Asia, offers a favorable regulatory environment and strong international connectivity. IPDN's decision to establish its subsidiary in Japan underscores the company's commitment to advancing its Asia-focused strategy and demonstrates its determination to strengthen its presence within the global Web3.0 and entertainment sectors.

Mr. Wu, Chief Executive Officer IPDN, commented, "The establishment of our Japan subsidiary reflects the strong support we have received from our blockchain and entertainment industry partners across Asia. Moving forward, we will continue to deepen collaboration, drive innovation, and foster cross-industry integration. Together, we aim to build a globally influential Web3.0 and entertainment ecosystem. We believe our Japanese subsidiary will serve as a key growth driver and strategic platform for our continued expansion in Asia and beyond."
